“ I am at a loss of words on how to describe how unreal this is. Amber was a wonderful soul and always had a smile on her face for everyone she met. I will never forgive myself for not using my time with her more wisely. If I had only known that our time would be cut so short.. I would have made more of an effort to let her know just what wonderful friend she was. I will miss you Amber.. I will miss your laugh and your wonderful comments on facebook. I will miss the days of sitting in the hot sun watching football each year. I am so sad - The world is just a bit darker now that you are gone.. Til we meet again.. xoxoJ
