

Andrew Perry Drisdom

May 15, 2003 - November 1, 2016

Andrew Perry Drisdom, age 13, passed away on November 1, 2016, on Main St. in Herriman Utah. He was born on May 15, 2003, in Van Nuys California to Anise Perry and Antonio Lipscomb.

From the time Andrew was born and until he passed, he was a bright light to his family and others, he was so funny and compassionate, he loved to make others laugh and be surrounded with happiness. Andrew absolutely loved to dance, he would say he wanted to be famous all the time, so he disciplined himself and practiced every day, while looking at his reflection. Andrew was also a talented singer, actor, loving son and big brother, among other things. He loved attending Unity Baptist Church as a little boy, serving as an usher and most recently served as a front line singer at One Accord Rise, this past Sunday night. Andrews last performance was on Monday October 31st at his church, The Point, for the Harvest Festival. Andrew loved his church family and sharing his love for Jesus, unashamed and with a smile.

Andrew is survived by his mom Anise Perry, father Antonio Lipscomb, and his dad Carey Drisdom Jr. His siblings, Elijah Drisdom, Aniya Drisdom, and Nathaniel Drisdom. His grandparents, William and Helen Sawyers, Carey and Teri Drisdom, Willie and Shirley Lipscomb, and a host of uncles, aunties, cousins and friends.

Service Information: The service will be held this Saturday November 12th at The Point Church located at 5133 Heath Ave, Salt Lake City, UT 84118. The viewing will be from 11-12pm and the actual service will be at 12pm. The cemetery will be Valley View Memorial Park, located at 4335 W 4100 S, West Valley, UT 84120 and we will proceed there after the service.

There will be a celebration of life concert in Andrew's honor on Friday November 11th at The Point Church as well, at 7-9pm.

We would to thank everyone who has encouraged us and spoken a kind word in this trying and most difficult time in our lives. We would specifically like to show our gratitude to our local church, The Point Church, for all the help, love and tireless support they have shown towards our family. We would also like to thank the wonderful Herriman, Riverton and District communities as a whole for the outpour of love that has been continuously showered upon us. We are in awe of the Godly love we've experienced in others during this tragic ordeal. Thank you all again and God Bless!!

“ One of our funny family stories that comes up often includes Andrew. I knew right away when they described the boy hit as dancing minutes before who the child was. My son has always been really shy and when I picked him up at school once it was Andrew that came up to him and high fived him and made him feel wanted. I'm grateful for the influence he was in my children's lives. I'm grateful to know you'll see him again and you'll always have an angel by your side

“ Dearest Andrew,

We love you dearly and will miss you greatly. You were AJ's first big boy playmates and friend. He always looked forward to coming to our choir practices so he could play with you. Thanks for being a friend, taking AJ under your wing, having his back, and showing him the ropes when he first learned how to play with the older kids. So, so, so cool :-). To Anise, CJ and the entire Drisdom, Lipscomb, and Sawyers families - our hearts are broken for your loss. We've always thought the world of Andrew - what a wonderful, wonderful kid! Thank you for rearing such a fine young man and encouraging him to share the essence of himself so selflessly - we've all benefited so richly from his beautiful spirit and Godly character. Our hearts, thoughts and prayers are continually with you during this difficult time. We wish you God's peace and comfort. John 14.

Love always,

“ When I think of my little Andrew and I think of Isaiah 11:1:5. At the age of 13 the young man has (I say has because he now LIVES with JESUS.... He is not dead he is yet alive) a powerful testimony with the lives that he touched. I remember him most as a little tike. Picking him up from daycare, saving him from spankings :-), cuddling with him and how he use to look up to my son. Buying Ninja Turtles, cuddling with his siblings. Coming and running and giving me a big hug every time he saw me.

I will miss him, but I know he is smiling in the arms of Jesus!
