"Gone Fishing"

Our beloved husband, father and Grampy passed away early morning June 25th, 2014 surrounded by his loved ones. He is survived by the love of his life, married for 56 years, Sharon "Ma Walrus", children Jodie (Jaye), Jeneanne (Taylor), Shawn (Debbie) and Sandy and grandchildren Nicholas, Morgan, Jason, Jesse, Ayla, Devin, Maddison and Jensen (his girls). He is preceded in death by his grandson "Shaner" and parents LeRoy and Vee Gehring.

He served in the Marine Corps, and retired from Kennecott Copper Corporation. He enjoyed spending his time fishing and hunting with family and good friends. He enjoyed baking with his granddaughters and making and sharing his smoked trout cheese logs. The family would like to thank the VA hospital and staff for their care and Summit Home Health and Hospice for making it possible for him to spend his last days at home. Special thanks to Monique Monfrooy for her wisdom and strength in helping Fisherman Bob, he thought the world of her.

We would like to invite you to share memories and celebrate his life Tuesday July 1st between 5pm and 8pm at the Hillside Stake Center on 1400 S 1900 E Salt Lake City, Utah.

“ We were neighbors of Bob's for a few years when we moved to Utah. He was a bit weary of the tattoo wearing, motorcycle riding, snowboard guy across the street. But on a dog walk a year in, he became my best pal on the block. Offering up smoked salmon, life advice, and lending an ear anytime of the day. I loved Bob, and my wife shared my sentiments. He was a great man and I will remember him for the rest of my days.

“ Hi Sharon, so sorry to here of Bobs passing. We're in San Diego visiting the kids and grand kids. Bob was such a great guy. Not only a great guy, but a great union leader. We alwas considered you guys as friend. I'll alwas remember the fun times we had bowling, and the good fish fries.I enjoyed working with Bob at good old KCC. I still remember the strawberries on your front porch, good stuff. Wish you the best,..may Bob rest in peace.

“ I only met this man once, the Grandfather of one of my best friends, and he really didn't say much or give me much of a thought, but in the short time I was able to spend with him and Maddison, I could see what a great man he truly was and had been. I may not be able to share any meaningful memories or thoughts about him like his family and close friends are able to, but I thought I would leave a memory on here to remind people that just because you don't know someone as well as you could in the short time you have to spend with them, it doesn't hurt to try and get to know them. Every word shared and every laugh that is spread serves as a great welcome back into the arms of the man whom originally created him. Rest in peace.
