Charlene White Kerekes 59 passed away June 26, 2018 at her daughter Tammara Waltz's home in Woods Cross, Utah. She was born June 1, 1959. She was adopted by Lamar & Vivian Johnson White shortly after.

She was an avid fan of War Craft. She enjoyed Fleetwood Mac music and her favorite songs were Songbird & Landslide which was special to both Charlene and Tammara. It was their song.

Tammara made it possible for Charlene to meet her favorite singer Loreena McKenneitt. It was a highlight of her life.

She had such a loving heart and a very soft spot for animals. She so dearly missed her cats.

She was able to give her mother the care she needed for the last couple years of her life. Giving Vivian the option to live at home until the end.

We know it is such a joyous reunion for her to be back with her mother and father that meant the world to her.

Charlene will surely be missed by all she was such a great sister, mother, aunt, sister in law and grandmother.

We know she is in a better place free of all pain that she had endured this last year.

Charlene has such an infectious laugh that all of us will remember.

A celebration of life will be held Saturday June 30 at her brother Doug White's home in Sandy from 3-7.

For you, there will be no more crying.
For you, the sun will be shining.
And I feel that when I'm with you.
It's alright, I know it's right.

To you, I'll give the world.
To you, I'll never be cold.
Cause I feel that when I'm with you.
It's alright, I know it's right.

And the songbirds are singing, like they know the score.
And I love you, I love you, like never before.

And I wish you all the love in the world.
Bust most of all, I wish it from myself.

And the songbirds keep singing, like they know the score
And I love you, I love you, I love you.
Like never before, like never before, like never before.
