“ Che was one of those special spirits that were sent here to earth to enrich the lives of all who were blessed enough to cross her path. She had a smile that could lift your spirits no matter how bad of a day you were having. Her laugh would turn your darkest mood into one of joy and happiness. Che truly was one of the most kind and caring persons I have ever had the privilege to know. Che was truly one of Gods angles here on earth. I have been truly blessed to have her as my sister-in-law. Che will be missed by all who knew her, but there will many a cherished memory of her kindness, giving and love that she so willing shared with us all. I will miss you!
