Christine Kirkwood Sargeant
April 7, 1963 - October 4, 2019

Chris passed away unexpectedly on October 4, 2019. She was born to Richard Kirkwood and Patricia (Jensen) Kirkwood on April 7, 1963 in Provo, Utah. She was then raised in American Fork where she was the second of three children. She then went on to marry Lee Chestnut with whom she had two beautiful children Kristy and Cody. She and Anthony stuck together through good times and bad, and were together for fifteen years until the time of her death.

Chris was also a member of The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints. Her happiness in life was her grandchildren. She loved the time she spent with them, and they loved their "Grandma Chris", and will forever think of her when they play with their Hot Wheels.

Chris is survived by her parents Richard and Pat (Jensen) Kirkwood. Her children Kristy (Kyle) Steele, Cody (Jessica) Chestnut; the grandchildren who loved and adored her; Lennon, Copelin and Weslie Steele, and Abbilynn Chestnut, her sister Cheryl (Ross) Ipson, brother Jeff (Robin) Kirkwood and her life partner Anthony Hall.

She is also survived by numerous nieces, nephews, aunts, uncles and cousins who loved her. She is preceded in death by her nephew Ashton Kirkwood.

“ Oh Chris what happened I thought we were getting to your happy place. I feel so bad that I couldn't be there to help you through your darkest hour.
A piece of my heart died with you but I know that you are now at peace from your mortal trials and are surrounded by loved ones in heaven. My fondest memory of you will always be your loving heart. I will be forever grateful for the grandchildren you brought into my life. I love you and know that the day will come that we will be together again.

“ I will never forget how much you loved my kids. You were a huge help with Mitch when he was a baby and I was working. I love it so much when I became a first time grandma a few months ago. The day Colm was born you were so excited for me. I am so grateful for the close connection we have had the last few months. I love you and I am so grateful for the grandma connection we had.
