Cindy Sue Somerlot Hughes, Our beautiful angel in heaven passed away December 31, 2019 battling cancer. She worked for united airlines for 20 years where she met some of the most fun loving life long friends who were with her until her last days.

Survived by her four children Tiffany Hughes (Jake Bischoff, pooka) Amber Hughes (Diven Beitzel Mason & Kylee Reeves, Chris, Brian, Molly, & Heather Beitzel) Cory Hughes and Casey Hughes, mother Patty Joan Somerlot and ex husband Tim Hughes. She lived her life always smiling and making sure those around her were doing the same and if they weren't she would find a way to no matter what. Cindy would choose her family over anything in her life which made her our hero and will be deeply missed by those who knew and loved her.

Cindy was born in Coldwater Michigan October 21, 1956 and eventually graduated from Sturgis high school in 1974. After traveling with her magic show and making her way west she eventually set roots in Salt Lake City Utah where she started her family and her love for the Utah Jazz.

“ Cindy, You were one classy lady, funny and beautiful. A grandmother who loved her grandkids, loved your children and your dear sweet mother. You were the kindest and sweetest person, and your poetry was written with such joy and love. We talked many times about your poetry being in a book. You always wondered if it was good enough and yes it is, always has been like I would tell you. You always reminded me to not waste any time in this life and to paint. Like you I never thought I was good enough either. I loved and adored you. I remember you doing a video on periscope the night when I knew you were the kind of friend I wanted. Oh my gosh you could make someone laugh, smile just from being there. We missed our trip to the beach in Florida but one day I will see you again when I get to heaven and I am sure you are on the beach now. I had asked my mother to meet you at the gates in heaven. I hope you saw her. You too are alot alike. I will miss you and I still cant believe you arent here, but I know you are here in our hearts and I will never forget your laugh and your voice. Sing and dance in heaven with all the angels. I love you gal, Frances

“ Cindy was loved by everyone for her beautiful smile and soul. She would always light up any room with her presence. We worked together for ten years at Continental Airlines, and I am grateful for all the times we shared. Rest in Peace Angel.
