

D. Craig Nyborg

August 8, 1951 - September 17, 2018

D. Craig Nyborg, 67, passed away on September 17, 2018, at his home in West Valley City. He was born to Darwin and Jeannine Nyborg on August 8, 1951, in Salt Lake City, UT. He married Beverly Sawaya on August 15, 1977. They had one daughter, Jamie Lynn Nyborg (Patten). He subsequently married Mitzi Burbano on August 25, 1989, and they had one daughter, Rachel Sea Nyborg (Gonzalez). He also embraced Mitzi's six children: Jarom, Lucas, Marciano, Samuel, Alma, and Dariana Burbano.

He graduated from Granger High School in 1969. He was a musician, playing bass guitar and harmonica, and sang in several local bands. He worked various jobs and then followed his father's footsteps into the construction business where he specialized in cement. He eventually co-owned a construction company with his brother, Tony, and was a general contractor, building homes in Tooele. He loved fishing, golfing, and Maverick hotdogs, but his greatest loves were his family, his grandkids, and his dogs. His large physical stature in this world was matched only by his loving, peaceful presence.

His family would like to invite anyone touched by Craig to a celebration of his life on Saturday, September 22, 2018, at the LDS chapel at 5000 W Pavant Ave, West Valley City, Utah, 84120. There will be a short service beginning at 10 AM, followed by an open mic, music, and dancing until 12 PM.

“ Craig was one of my first boyfriends. I met him when I was just 16 years old. He was always a kind, gentle and very unassuming person. Our lives crossed paths again many years later when he had just remarried or was just about to. I always held a special place in my heart for Craig and have a lot of respect for him. I believe I still have a painting that he did.

He popped into my mind this morning and I just googled his name completely on a whim. I was so surprised to see his name associated with an obituary. Even more surprised that his passing was so recent. I'm so sorry for your loss of him as a husband, father, and to brother Tony, I know you were very close.

“ Sending thoughts and prayers to all the family I had recently located Craig searching for former classmates for our upcoming 50th class reunion, and I was told of his illness, May you rest in peace my former classmate. Sincerely, Shawna Wimmer-Lehman Granger High School class of 1969

“ My life has been enriched by knowing Craig. Mitzi and I taught together over a period of years in the Iapah Elementary School. Craig would occasionally pop in for lunch or to visit. He also subbed at the school. One might think that a 6 ft 5 man in size 16 shoes would intimidate the children. In fact the opposite was true. The kids all loved him to pieces. His gentle nature and endearing demeanor drew the kids like a big powerful magnet.
