On the evening of June 12, 2016 our beloved Daniel Bennett Edwards was called home by our loving Father in Heaven. Daniel was the son of Philip and Sheila Edwards of Lehi Utah. Daniel married his Sweetheart Alexandra Keele-Edwards on August 6, 2011. They had two beautiful daughters Ariya Kaye Edwards, and Adalynn Ann Edwards. They currently reside in Eagle Mountain Utah

Daniel lived most of his life in Lehi where he attended Meadow Elementary, Lehi Jr. High, and Lehi High schools, and was a member of The Church Of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints.

Daniel was a jokester, he loved goofing off, telling jokes, and pranking people. He was often referred to as "the life of the party". Daniel had the most contagious laugh, and a smile that lit up the room. He had a way of making everyone feel loved. Daniel enjoyed anything outdoors especially hunting and camping. Daniel loved BBQing, playing the xbox and watching his favorite sports team the Eagles. Most of all Daniel loved spending time with his family. He was a devoted husband and father, who loved his family with all his heart.

“ Hi. I'm Daniels niece, and I'm sharing a story about camp. Once, I was tubing and Dan almost knocked over the boat!

“ "Daniel my brother....." were the Elton John song lyrics I would croon to him every time we passed each other at work. Daniel and I always enjoyed exchanging football rivalry statistics on Monday morning (he loved his Eagles) and we also exchanged a few practical jokes between ourselves. Daniel and his family will be in my thoughts. Unfortunately the above mentioned song now takes on a whole new meaning for me with the line: "Lord I miss Daniel, oh I miss him so much....."

With deepest sympathy,

“ I'm so sorry for your loss. There is nothing that can prepare a person for the feelings of losing a family member.

The Bible describes Jehovah as a God of all comfort, at 2 Corinthians chapter 1 and verses 3-4. One scripture that has brought so many people comfort is Revelation chapter 21 and verses 3-5 because that describes a promise from God that is specifically touching to anyone who has experienced the pain of losing someone. Again, my deepest sympathies for your loss.

“ I always laughed and mocked the way that he talked on the phone. You'd answer and say hello, and he'd be like, "Hello?" "Hello," I'd say. Then Daniel would go on with his deep voice, "HELLO???"

Like yes, I am here. I have said hello three times. I miss him dearly.

“ I love the Daniel I knew. After working with him for 2 years, I realized the hard core tough guy was just a front, he was a teddy bear at heart. LOVED his laugh, so contagious. I will always remember his support and funny cutting food videos. Bless the Edwards family

“ I work with Daniel's father Phillip knowing Phil and after reading about Daniel I think I can imagine his personality. There is no better person to know than Phil. My heart aches for you all, and I share in your sorrow. My thought have been of you. Knowing Phil is strong and true of heart, I know in time all will be well. Ron Smith & Family.

“ I have so many fun memories of Daniel. I dont even know which one to choose...

Last fall my husband and I were building a home and we were living in an apartment while it was being built. We had a club house with hot tubs and a pool. For some reason the pool was still open.. After a few hours in the hot tub Daniel dared Alex and I to jump in the pool. It was dark. And COLD but we took him up on his dare and jumped in. As we came up out of the water we saw that heard Daniel laughing and saw him running out the gate with our towels. I was so mad but laughing at the same time While we ran all the way up soaking wet freezing cold. We all laughed. That's just the kind of guy he was.. Always looking for a way to make people laugh!! I'm going to miss him.. He just made himself right at home with my family and our extended family. If you didn't know the situation you'd think he was our brother. Love you Boone!!

“ Well as I sit here reading about Danny and crying I remember when he went on vacation with us when he was young. Everyone loved him he was basically part of the family. Sheila watches my kids for the majority of there younger lives and Danny used to hang around quite a bit. Grandma Goodie loved him. He actually sent her one of his school pictures. Haven't seen you much lately but you will forever be in mine and my families heart. Rip Danny Boy!!!!!!

“ My favorite memory is about how Daniel and I met. Bear, my husband, and sons were at work and Amy needed to go run some errands...something for Aspyn's dance. Jaz and I had been playing Barbie dolls and she didn't want to leave so there were were, all alone at The Brown house (which we all know happens like never) when I heard the door shut. Imagine my surprise when instead of seeing Amy, there was a tall young man standing in the kitchen. He said "Where's Amy at?" I said that she was running errands. He said "oh. Bears not home yet...haha, suckers. I get to go first!" He walked right in and sat down to begin playing Halo! He even had his own profile and knew my cousin's names so I decided it was alright. 2 minutes later, Jazmyn came looking for me wondering why I hadn't come back yet. I asked if she wanted to sit with us and she said "what for? I wanna play Barbies, Aunt Tanya. Daniel can play Halo without us. Come on." But, we sat and visited with Daniel even after everyone got home. That IS the Boone we all know and love. He was larger than life and the sweetest guy I know.
