“ I could write a book about my experiences with David. One thing I can say ,is with all the time we spent together rather by ourselves or with our families, we always had a great time. we laughed from the time we got together until we parted. he was loved by everyone that knew him. one story I'll tell, is : we were at a trap shoot tournament , and after the banquet dinner, we could bid on shooters. there was a couple men that were very good. David and I decided that we would bid on them and share the cost if we won. we ended up on opposite sides of the room, without knowing it, I was bidding against David for the same guy, and we ended up spending about twice the amount we wanted too. (ok this was a time he didn't laugh. (but we all did the next day.

LOVE YOU COUSIN DAVID, AND REST IN PIECE MY FRIEND . (CHOOCH)
