

Della DaNaze Dalby

April 27, 1945 - January 27, 2016

Loving daughter, mother, sister and friend to all she met. She fought a knock down drag out fight with lymphoma, but lost her battle the morning of January 27 2016.

DaNaze was born on April 27, 1945 in Cardston, Alberta Canada to Albert and Fern Earl. She always liked to tell people that she was born a day before her mom and dad got married as they celebrated their first anniversary on April 28. She leaves behind a loving daughter Michelle, her son Bret, grandchildren Tristan, Sabian, Jayce, Griffin. She loved them so, always talking about their achievements and milestones.

She grew up in Bountiful Utah and later moved to Brigham City with the family. She loved music, makeup, fashion and boys. She was always beautiful and was even asked to run for Peach Queen in Brigham City. She could make dresses without a pattern, and would cut hair for her family without ever having instruction. She was an amazing person as anyone who knew her would tell you.

She went on to earn her Associates Degree in computer programming but found her passion in travel. She especially loved taking people on trips to places that she knew would change them and help them grow. Peru, Japan and Russia were some of her favorites. She met many people and formed strong friendships with people around the world. Her family had the pleasure of joining her on some the trips.

She married twice. Once to Dallas Jorgensen with whom she had two children, Bret and Michelle and then to Kim Dalby with whom she had two, Travis and Camille. She is preceded in death by her parents Albert and Fern Earl, children Travis Kim Dalby, Camille Elise Dalby and grandson Ayden Jaxon Bosh.

She is survived by her sisters, Barbara Clement, Joanne Francis and her brother Wayne Earl, children Bret Dalby and Michelle Dalby, grandchildren, Michael Dalby, Tristan Dalby, Sabian Dalby, Jayce Rigler and Griffin Dalby.

She will be missed by many but dwells with her parents and children and in the hearts of the remaining people. She can be out of pain and flying with the wings of an angel.

We thank her for the many blessings she brought, lessons she taught and gifts she bestowed on all her who had the privilege to know her.

As quoted by Michael Cunningham from "The Hours":

To look life in the face. Always. To look life in the face and to know it for what it is. And loss. To know it. To love it for what it is, and then, to put it away.

“ It was always fun to visit with Aunt Fern, Uncle Albert and family in Brigham City on our trips to Utah. I always admired my cousin Danaze for her beauty, poise and adventurous spirit. It has been wonderful to reconnect with her this last couple of years. Danaze has been a good friend and was very supportive during my recent family crisis. I will miss her greatly.

“ My dear sister,
Although you are not more in this level, you will always live in my heart and in my memory because God blessed me with your friendship “MY SWEET MAMITA”.
To meet you was a precious gift in my life.
Love you DaNaze....I'll never forget you.

“ DaNaze, you will always be in my heart. I enjoyed serving you these past two years as we learned so much together using live food, herbs, essential oils, energy healing and so much more to help ease your pains and create a higher quality of life for you until the end. You are a strong woman who wanted so much to find healing. I will miss you very much. You are loved greatly by so many! Heaven gained an angel and so did I. May God bless your sweet family and friends to heal their saddened hearts. I'm so grateful you are out of pain.

“ I first met DaNaze through answering a newspaper ad for an outside sales agent for a travel agency. We connected immediately. When she left that agency, we were in the middle of planning a tour. Because of the circumstances under which she left (not her choice) I wanted to pull out. But she encouraged me to continue on and make use of the time I had already put into the tour. She ALWAYS encouraged me in every endeavor. I shall always value the choice experiences that we shared. What a lovely and loving lady!
