

Devin James Kelley

May 16, 1988 - February 13, 2019

Devin James Kelley passed away February 13, 2019 in West Valley City, Utah. He was born May 16, 1988 in Elko, NV to Auby Kelley and John Kelley.

Devin had a big heart even though he did not always show it. The people closest to him knew it. He enjoyed anything that kept him active from biking to skateboarding. He had a passion for life, but his biggest passion was for his daughter. He was an amazing father to Kenzi. He enjoyed any time they had together, big or small. From coloring to teaching her life's lessons. Talking to someone about her and how proud he was of her, was the most amazing time. The light in his eyes, the key to his heart, his daughter. He will be forever missed.

Devin is survived by his mother, Auby Kelley. Daughter, Kenzi Kelley. Siblings, Tiffany Gonzales, Trista Maez, Johnnie Kelley and Erin Kelley. Nieces, Calissa Loomis, Alexia Kelley and Danika Gonzales. Nephew, Michael Maez. He is preceded in death by his father, John Kelley. Grandmothers, Mary Rutherford and Mildred Altermatt. Grandfather, AR Rutherford.

“ I think my most prominent memory that sticks out is watching Devin stand up to a group of guys that were bullying and intimidation a bunch of people that were just trying to hang out and shoot the tube with their friends and kids back when we were all young men. He was the first one to stand up to them when the rest of the group was at the bottom of the tube and he was alone but it didn't matter cause it was the right thing to do. Those guys walked away embarassed that day and even though i was older i definitely looked up to Devin that day for sticking up for other people even when he was alone and taking one on the chin without retaliation because he didn't want kids to witness the fight that was about to happen. That was just a small glimpse of who he was and it makes me proud to have witnessed that kind of honor in person.
