“ Remembering the 90's when we would golf with Efren. We were all younger and he was a great golfer. I heard stories of his hole in one shots and that is something every golfer wants to achieve. My condolences to his family and the Campos family. May he always be remembered. Bernie Martinez

“ I remember when I was around the ages of 5-10 my grandpa would always be wearing his favorite cologne Santa Fe. I'd always ask him if I could have some so when the bottle was just about gone, he would give it to me and I would put it on every day before I went to school. I still have an empty bottle of it. I'll miss you papa. I love you so much. Rest In Paradise <3
