

Elizabethhe Mariana De Tomasi

September 18, 1959 - January 10, 2017

Elizabethhe Mariana DeTomasi, born Sherry Grannis, passed away peacefully in her sleep, January 10, 2017. She was born September 18, 1959 in Hermosa Beach, California to Donald Manning Grannis and ReNae DeTomasi Grannis. She was the first grandchild to Dorotha Davidson DeTomasi and Fred DeTomasi and was adored by her whole family.

Elizabethhe spent her childhood in the water. She was born and raised near the ocean where she learned to love boating, surfing and water skiing. Later, her family moved inland and she was able to get a horse, Sno, whom she loved and talked about even as an adult. She spent her days playing with her younger sister and only sibling, Tonina and was described by her mother as being a tom-boy who loved beautiful things, such as lace and the color pink.

Elizabethhe joined the LDS church as a teenager and was a faithful member. She served a full-time mission to Denver, Colorado from 1983 to 1984. She was an excellent servant of the Lord and touched many lives and made many lifelong friends during her time in Colorado.

Elizabethhe will be greatly missed by so many friends and family members who loved and adored her. Still, we are happy she was able to put this mortality behind her and return to her Father in Heaven in peace and love.

Elizabethhe is survived by her sister Tonina DeTomasi, nephew Dane Ariimoana Krackowizer, Australia, many cousins and friends throughout California and Utah. She is preceded in death by her Mother, ReNae DeTomasi Grannis, Father, Donald Grannis and both sets of grandparents.

A viewing will be held Saturday, January 21, 2017 from 10-11am at the Serenity Funeral Home followed by a memorial service at 11:00am at the same location, Serenity Funeral Home, 12278 S. Lone Peak Pkwy, Draper, Utah. Interment will take place at the Provo City Cemetery.

“ My name is Nobuaki Irie. I live in Osaka, Japan. Elizabthe and I were in the same Linguistics classes at BYU 30 years ago. We lost in touch after I went back to Japan in 1992. And after many years, we found each other on Facebook, and we kept in touch through FB. The last time we met was September 2016 when I did a musical fireside at church in Salt Lake. And the last time we communicated on FB was December that year. Her last message to me was, "Merry Christmas!" Since then, I have sent messages to Elizabthe here and there, but she didn't respond. Last night, I was going through an old photo album, and found a picture which I uploaded here. So, I sent another message to her Facebook page last night. Then today, I was prompted to check her FB page carefully. Then I realized that she had not updated her page for a long time. I got this feeling that maybe something is wrong with her. So, I just Googled her name, and found this page... You have no idea how shocked and sad I am right now. I did not realize that she had passed away 3 years ago. Was she sick? How come she never told me?... I just want you to know that she was always a very positive, fun and caring person. I just read all the message she had sent me on Facebook, and pretty much in every message, she shared a scripture, church leader's talks, or inspiring stories. I will be forever grateful to her for her example and friendship. I hope her family knows how much she touched my life. I will miss her...

“ I'm so sorry to hear of her passing. I'm the person on the other side of Elizabthe in the picture. She spent a Christmas with family while we were working on on Master's degrees at BYU. She was an amazing person. Laura Gallant

“ I was Elizabeth's first missionary companion when she arrived in Colorado. She never pulled any punches and you always knew where you stood with her. She was honest, forthright, funny and genuine. I am so glad I knew her. Susan Sneddon Harker

“ I first met Elizabethe as a fellow missionary in the Colorado Denver Mission and later our paths crossed as students at BYU. I admired Sister De Tomasi's formidable intelligence, her quick wit, and her complete lack of pretense. Peace be with Elizabethe's family, friends and acquaintences at this time.

“ Elizabethe's and my paths only crossed briefly when we were both working and studying at the English Language Center at Brigham Young University. However, the experiences I had with her remain clear and memorable even decades later. She was so completely authentic and earnest. We enjoyed long, long conversations as we drove in vans to conferences. While I am surprised her time on earth has been so short, I find myself touched by her even now. I send you Tonina my sympathy in your loss. I am grateful for my chance to know your sister.

“ Elizabethe moved into my neighborhood just a few months ago. She found out I had a stomach flu so she brought over soup, Sprite, and a stomach ache relief medicine. She hadn't even met me before. What a great example of charity!

PS-I love the cheerful photo of Elizabethe on the obituary.
