

Eric Brooks Ridenour

August 30, 1972 - November 29, 2021

Eric Brooks Ridenour passed away on November 29, 2021, at his home in Murray. He was surrounded by his loving wife and children.

Eric was born August 30, 1972, in Burley, Idaho, to George Fredric and Vermoyne Ridenour. He spent his early years in Michigan and Wisconsin before moving with his family to California. He loved riding his bike, bothering his sister, playing football and basketball with his brothers and the neighbor kids, racing Hot Wheels and slot cars, strumming the guitar, and drawing.

He always strived to learn more, continually pursuing new skills and trades. Toward the end of his life he learned how to weld and was one final away from receiving his masters in business. He could make and fix anything around him. He loved his family more than anything and it usually kept him up at night when they didn't take his advice.

He is survived by his loving wife, Mindy, his five children, mother and father, and four brothers and their families.

A service will be held in Provo, Utah, on Friday, December 3, 2021. This will take place at The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints Summit Ward building, 4000 Foothill Dr. Provo, Utah 84064. The service will be from 6:30pm to 7:30pm with a viewing until 8:30pm. Burial services will be on Saturday, December 4, 2021 at 1:00pm in Elba, Idaho at the Grandview Cemetery.

We thank you for your love and support of this wonderful man and his family.

“ I had the pleasure of working with Eric at FedEx. He was such a good and friendly guy to talk with. When it came to work he was always willing to help as much as he could. We had some good chats about his family and his love for you. I recall talking to him recently and his positive tone and perspective is what I'll always remember. He has always been that way and nothing changed during his illness. Thank you Eric for blessing my life with your friendship. My condolences go to you Mindy and your family. May the Lord bless and comfort you. Rich Broederlow

“ Eric. We got to know you and sweet Mindy in the Arlington Heights ward, right before we moved to Naperville. You helped move us! I remember meeting Mindy in Relief Society, getting to know her. She told us how you guys were together and then you quietly started going to church on Sundays. She just observed and then saw how happy you were when you came home! She then asked if she could go with you and the rest is history. Beautiful, eternal bliss. As you were moving our (heavy) food storage into the moving truck, you shared how every time your mom had moved, you would pack up all of her food storage and then many years later you guys opened and saw spiders all over it. haha You have the gentlest, kindest heart. Yours isn't a tragedy by any stretch of the imagination. I remember Elder Oaks as a child sharing that his widowed mother talked about their father all of the time, like he was just in the next room. I know that Mindy's faith is strong and that is how it will be for her, for you. We love you guys!!!! James and Andre'a Larson

“ I was so blessed to be Eric's cousin and get to grow up with him and share a little of life with him. He was so dear to me. The Beecher family reunions were the highlight of my summer. The time I spent with Eric and other cousins was treasured. Eric made us laugh until we cried. He lit up a room. He brought fun and joy everywhere he went. His laugh was contagious. He was always so kind to me and I looked up to him. Honestly he felt more like a brother than a cousin. As we moved into adulthood he supported me and stood by me through really difficult times. I am so deeply grateful for him and his life. Mindy, I am so grateful he had you. Thank you for loving this great man so well. I am deeply sorry for your loss and for the kids' loss. There is something about losing a parent that shifts your whole world. But I've learned they are as close as we need them to be. My mom loved him too and I believe she will join Gary and Amy in loving him from that side of the veil. My heart hurts. I pray you will all be comforted at this time and feel him close. I love you, Eric.
