“ Jesse scared me the first time I met him. But I grew to like him after hanging out with him several times. I remember having little conversations here and there. I got to admit I always wanted to eat his Cheeto puffs that he always had laying around but I was too shy to ask for some. I will miss his sweet heart, his yelling at all the little kids in our family, him crunching on his chips, and the love and affection I saw through his eyes for my cousin Ika and his beloved children. Love you Jesse! We love and miss you! ❤️❤️❤️

“ One of the best hometeachers, brothers and friend. Always visited my family. Always so thoughtful and caring and I'll never forget him benching 4 plates in the early 2000's. Love you brother Jesse. You lived an awesome life and affected me and my family. We love you.

“ My dads big brother.. Aka the handsome one lol.. I'll never forget our talks, especially the one we had a year ago after my step dad passed on from cancer. Uncle your words touched my heart, you knew things that no one else knew. Til this day, it still amazes me how much you said would happen, it happened. I will miss your soft but strong voice & your wise words I will never forget. Rest in paradise, with our grandma Fiatele 💕

“ I didn't know him as well as I knew the others in the family but what I did know and from what I have heard he was an amazing person. Every time I would see him he would come up and shake my hand and ask how I was. He had a kind heart and loved his family very much.

“ Jesse was an exceptional young man growing up when we knew him in Hauula with his Grandpa Al and our mother Vaitai. He was an example of humility, the best example of respect and really took interest in and was considerate of others. We are happy that he has an eternal family who he will be preparing for in the Celestial Kingdom for certainly if anyone deserves Heaven, Jesse does. May only the Lord's choicest blessings shower upon his family until they are reunited forever.

Alofa tele atu, dear Jesse,

“ I was married to his brother Statehood, gave him a neice (Sandra) and nephew (Stanford). When our children were younger, we got together often in Hawaii. Statehood, Jesse, Larry & Tauese were very close brothers that loved their mother Fiatele and each other. Have a safe trip home Jesse. When you see my mom, please give her a hug and kiss or me. Give your mom a hug and kiss from me too. I love you bro. Salu Tagoai-Tuigamala
