“ I met Jon when he came to work at the Girl Scout Camp Cloud Rim. It was my first year as a counselor and boys were a very rare thing to see in the Girl Scout realm. He was funny and taught all the campers to break dance. I became his #7 "Counselor Wife" and still have the ring he made me. After camp we would hang out and go for walks. He taught me to dance and introduced me to a lot of great people. When he got sick I stayed with him for a while in the hospital. He cheered up all the patients and nurses with songs on the guitar. I have never met anyone so strong and positive. No matter what came his way he greeted me with a smile. I love Jon more than I can say. And I can honestly say I wouldn't be here if it weren't for him. He is the greatest adopted brother-Girl Scout husband-friend I could ever ask for. He will be missed forever.

“ Jon was my very first friend I met when I came to Utah. I moved here in the summer of 2001. I attended William Penn in 6th grade. Being that it was 6th grade a lot of people have had friends that theyve known since kindergarten. Being fresh from the south of course I had an accent. One day as we were lining up to enter the scho. Jon approached me and asked me where I was from because he had noticed the accent and knew I wasnt from around these parts. To him being the social guy he was that probably was just small talk, but to me it meant a whole lot more. It gave me sense that everything was going to be fine and I would make new friends even though I left the ones I grew up with behind. Unbeknownst to us both that we were making a relationship that would last through the years. I miss you Jon.

“ There are so many great memories I have of you, from all the silly things you said in my yearbook, to all the adventures at the cottonwood mall. Can't forget the time when you worked at castle of chaos and picked on me in one of the rooms you were in. Most of all I'll always remember how every time I saw you, you always gave me a super big hug. I miss your amazing personality as well as many others do. Here's to a great friend I miss and love you lots RIP Jonathan Alexander Scott Hague. ?
