

Jonathan Jordan Call

May 21, 1980 - May 3, 2014

Our hearts were broken Saturday morning, May 3, when we learned of the untimely death of Jonathan Jordan Call. JJ was a beautiful son, brother, uncle, nephew, cousin and friend. In his short life, he forever impacted those who knew him.

JJ was born on May 21, 1980, in Salt Lake City, Utah to Melinda Whiteley and Randy Call. He graduated from Skyline High School in 1999. JJ was a gifted athlete, generous, hilarious storyteller, confident, ambitious, charismatic, keenly sensitive to and protective of the underdog, fiercely loyal, and genuinely interested in all members of his family. The children in the family enjoyed his fun-loving and playful nature. JJ loved animals, especially his dogs. Through all of the ups and down those closest to him knew the kindness and sensitivity of his soul. Our sorrow is for the potential that was never reached in this life.

We will always be grateful for our last times with him when he looked so healthy and enthused for the life ahead. The recent times together brought hope and joy as he recovered his best self and discussed his plans for the future.

While his earthly life is finished we believe that JJ will be embraced with love and welcomed into a better phase of existence where, through the grace of God, the potential we saw and prayed for will ultimately be realized.

Preceded in death by brother Anthony, grandparents Ben and Lois Call and John M. Whiteley. Survived by his father Randy (Connie) Call, his mother Melinda Whiteley, grandmother Barbara Whiteley, brothers Zachary and Nicholas, half-brothers Aaron, and Taylor, half-sister Samantha, step-sisters Stephanie, and Ashley, and numerous aunts, uncles, cousins and the 'younglings' who looked up to him: Lauren, Chloe, Ethan, Olivia, Sophia and Dylan.

Farewell sweet Prince, you are so loved.

A private service is being planned. For more information visit <http://www.serenicarefuneralhome.com>

Comments

---

“ My heartfelt condolences. May the God of all comfort be with you during this time of intense grief and always. (2 cor 1:3,4). I'm very sorry for your loss. (Revelation 21:3,4)

jaime - May 08, 2014 at 05:20 PM

---

“ We would like to invite friends and family to join us for a celebration of Jonathan Jordan Call's life this evening, May 6, from 6-8 pm in the banquet room at Cucina Toscana (307 West Pierpont Ave, Salt Lake City. We would love to hear your stories about JJ and celebrate his life. We love you JJ and will miss you dearly.

Monica Call - May 06, 2014 at 01:54 PM

---

“ Oh Johnny I will never forget your sweet soul or the support you gave me and Quincie. We are heartbroken not to get to see your journey.

Carmen Hansen - May 06, 2014 at 09:55 AM

---

“ 1 file added to the album Memories Album

Serenity Funeral Home - May 05, 2014 at 05:43 PM

“ Oh how I miss you! Your smile, your laugh, your funny stories, your strong hugs when you wouldn't let go until it hurt, your appetite for the 'best' of everything and everyone. Most of all, I miss that you so lovingly 'took care of me' and hated cancer too. You said, "It's my turn to tuck you in." Death leaves a heartache no one can heal, LOVE leaves a memory no one can steal.

"If ever there is tomorrow when we're not together... there is something you must always remember. You are braver than you believe, stronger than you seem, and smarter than you think, but the most important thing is, even if we're apart...I'll always be with you."

-Winnie the Pooh

(Your favorite childhood friend. You would sit on the couch with your stuffed Winnie the Pooh and watch his many adventures endlessly. When the tape would stop, you would yell 'Momma AGAIN'. You loved your friends in the 100 acre woods until your big brothers got home from school.)

LOVE ALWAYS, m o m

Melinda Whiteley - May 31, 2014 at 10:04 AM