

Kash Ward Jones

January 2, 1997 - July 2, 2019

On the morning of July 2, 2019, Kash Jones returned to his Father in heaven at the age of 22. He was born January 2, 1997 in Salt Lake City, Utah to Julie Jones and Camron Smith.

He graduated from Valley High School, class of 2015. He worked in the construction business doing concrete. Kash loved music and was passionate about rhyming and rapping . He was very creative.

Kash's smile was contagious and he made friends everywhere he went. He had a big heart and was kind to everyone. He was a practical joker and had a witty comeback for everything. Kash will be greatly missed.

Kash is preceded in death by his grandfather, David Jones and his step-grandfather, Robert Paetsch.

He is survived by his grandmother, Nancy Howe, mother and father, aunts, Lori Edmunds and Kristin Garcia, uncle, Jerry Jones, many cousins, the love of his life, Kamille Anderton and his daughter who is about to enter this world to love and cherish him forever.

Funeral services will be held Monday, July 8, 2019 at 11:00 AM in the River 4th Ward, 1380 West 6785 South West Jordan, Utah. A visitation will be held one hour prior at the same location. Interment will take place following the service at Redwood Memorial Cemetery.

“ Kashy, my heart aches knowing what your girlfriend and family are going through. Im sadden by the fact that you were so sad when you smiled so bright. I love you kashypoo i hope you finally find the peace you've so badly wanted. I remember back in the day when you were 13 hanging out with my brother and we were all being rebellious lol. I have so many members for you. Gone but not forgotten.

“ Kash, I can't believe your gone.... it feels so unreal. I met you the summer before 7th grade, I'll never forget running around the neighborhood with you & Tj. Having fun causing some trouble just being kids hanging out all hours of the day. You made my childhood fun with all our memories!!! I won't forget getting yelled at for brushing our hair in class, or how Awesome we thought we were when we got weiner dogs around the same time.I'll never forget your contagious laugh & dimpled Smiley face!!! Your

the kindest caring soul I've met.
I love you dude, Rest in PEACE

“ Kash... The last time I even spoke to you was June 5th. You had told me I was the only person you haven't gotten mad at. But I now see how many people cared for you and how many people you obviously cared for... you were loved and will never be forgotten. Sweetest soul I've ever met and a fighter at that. We will love and miss you dude.

“ Kash, dude, I love you. You had an amazing soul and just knew how to brighten up a room. You've motivated so many people without even realizing. I remember some of our deep conversations about life and it's meaning and I hope one day when we meet again we can talk about the things that made life meaningful. Heaven gained a real one and you left everyone here memories we couldn't forget if we tried. I love you so much. Rest in paradise Kash.

“ Kash was one of my lifelong friends, my cousin and an all around awesome person. He had a great personality and a huge heart. He had so much passion for things he loved. he used to show me the beats he made on his computer and I thought that was pretty cool he was really good. I invited him to the sand dunes one time on a big trip and all the great story's of the weekend involved Kash somehow he had everyone laughing all the time. I'm really going to miss you Kash RIP cuz I love you.

“ I grew up with Kash. Everyday I'd beg and beg to hang out with him and go play Xbox. I remember riding on the back of his bmx bike going up a hill in West Jordan and I slipped off and we both fell and just laughed. He will forever be in my prayers, say hey to my father I'll see you on the bright side brother. My prayers go out to his family and friends. -Trevor Rice

“ Had a great time boating with Kash ... he had great personality and was always kind... and love to had fun.
Kash was a hard worker in the construction business .... was the best guy to have around when the day started early and ran late in the day.
We all will miss your great smile and the times we had with you.....Brent “ Kash...Omg it doesn't even seam real. Sweetest kid in the world with a heart even bigger. How I will miss you. Never a day goes by without me thinking of you because your sister shares so many mannerisms especially with the cheek dimples when she says certain words. You were always such an amazing person the thought of you not here makes me feel suffocated. You will be in mine your dads and Mackenzies heart forever all my love goes out to you!!!
