“ I have many memories of Laura but the thing that I will remember the most is how she made me feel. Her smile was so contagious and her heart was full of light. She was always so kind to me and even as our lives drifted apart I always knew she would be there if I needed her. She honestly carried me through our beginning years of high school. We took a volleyball class together and I hated it so much. I wasn't good at it at all but of course she was. I still looked forward to it everyday because it was when I got to see her! Early on she knew who she was and where she fit in but I was still figuring that out. She was patient with me and let me tag along like a little sister. She had a lot of friends and people who admired her and it's because she was kind to everyone and was unapologetically herself. She was authentic and real. I regret not reaching out to her over the past several years because I realize that I really missed out in getting to know her more, beyond when we were kids. She will be greatly missed!! I love you Laura!

“ I remember when Laura was born on St. Patrick's day and her aunt Annie told me Amy had another daughter. She was adorable and when she came to visit us a few years later with her sisters Carly and Jamie and brothers Matt and Tyler looking for snakes in my field and I met her for the first time I was just stunned by her beautiful blue eyes. She had such a sweet personality. I loved making her laugh. God bless you Laura. God bless your family, too. Much love, Pinky

“ The first thing I noticed about Laura is that her smile lights up the room. She's a rockstar, beautiful inside and out. She had the gift to help people feel comfortable and included, even when she didn't know them well. She had an old soul. She absolutely loved her family, especially her nieces and nephews. They adored her. It's rare to meet such a genuine, sincere and truly beautiful person.

“ I've had the pleasure of knowing Laura for the better part of ten years, and I honestly can't explain confined to a text box, how lovely of a person she is. Such a polite, and beautiful individual, I'm at a complete loss. Laura, you always gave amazing advice, always willing to lend an ear, thank you for helping me through some difficult chapters in life. Love, love, love.

“ Laura was one of the sweetest people I've ever had the pleasure of knowing. I loved when I would get to hang out and chat with her even though it wasn't always often. She was beautiful inside and out, and had such a contagious smile. She had this remarkable ability to be able to lift people up and make them feel good, and I think she excelled in her profession because of this! I will miss her so much, and I offer my condolences to her beloved family, friends, and everyone else who's life she enriched. Goodbye sweet angel . Thanks for always being kind to me and my family.

“ I was a client of Laura's for about 2 years and am so lucky to have been able to have known her. My heart aches for her family and they have been in my thoughts and prayers since I heard the news. She was always so happy and kind and I looked forward to seeing her every month. She always made sure to ask about my life and always remembered what was going on with me and made sure to ask. She truly cared. The world lost an amazing person but I am so lucky to have crossed paths with her.
