

Linda Margaret Stevenson

July 25, 1943 - July 17, 2018

Linda Margaret Stevenson was born July 25, 1943 in Northampton, England. She passed away peacefully July 17, 2018.

She started school in Northampton and was a member of the Sea Cadets. In the early 60s, she became a student nurse at the Royal Hospital, Richmond Surrey in England. She met and married Robin Stevenson October 2nd, 1965 in Northampton. She then graduated as a nurse in 1966 and was awarded the Bronze Medal in nursing, which was presented to her by Odette, who helped organize the French Underground Resistance in World War II. After graduating with her nursing degree, she then went on to become a midwife. She worked as a midwife doing home deliveries in Harrow, North West London. In 1969 she gave birth to twins, Ian & Neil, and then in 1977 she gave birth to Andrew. She loved motherhood and her boys were the highlight of her life.

In 1986 she moved with her family from London to Scotland when her husband Robin retired from the Police Force. There they ran a care home for the elderly for about 4 years, and she continued to practice as a part-time nurse.

In 2001 they moved to the United States to help their son Ian, whose wife was chronically ill, and to be close to their three sons who all lived in America.

She loved gardening and was looking forward to planting a beautiful garden in heaven. She was firm in her LDS faith. She was prepared to move on to the next life. She looked forward to a grand reunion with her family in the life to come.

Linda was a humble person and wanted a small private viewing with just her immediate family members.

Survived by husband, Robin Stevenson, 3 sons, 9 grandchildren, & younger brothers James & John Broughton who live in England.

Comments

“ Lizzie Mac lit a candle in memory of Linda Margaret Stevenson

Lizzie Mac - July 21, 2018 at 01:34 AM

“ I will miss seeing Linda on her daily walks. She was always pleasant and kind when she took a moment to visit. May she rest in sweet, eternal peace. My condolences to her family.

Lizzie Mac - July 21, 2018 at 01:35 AM

“ I will always remember how genuinely kind Linda was. I loved her lessons when she taught gospel doctrine class. She had a special spirit about her. I will miss seeing her on the front row at church, always with a smile for anyone she came in contact with. I will miss her and wish Robin and the rest of the family blessings from above during this difficult time.

Love,
Clair Brown

Clair Brown - July 20, 2018 at 09:09 PM