

Losaline Tu'a Sika Nau

May 15, 1957 - June 14, 2015

In the midnight hours of June 14th 2015 Losaline Tua Sika Nau gently tucks her grandchildren into their beds before going down to rest in her bedroom. This would be her final service before departing this earth and joining her eternal companion on the other side of the veil. Paradise opened it's gates and has received a loving daughter, a thoughtful friend, a full-time mother, and an irreplaceable "nana".

She is survived by her "kiddies" (grandchildren): Keiliki, Lindseigh, Tevia, Lyman, Laker, Eternity, Yami Ieka, and four of her own children and their spouses: Finehika & Chase Rarick, Keili & Kuli Malohifo'ou, Tevita & Audrey'Ana Nau, and Viliami Nau.

Losaline Tua Sika Nau is the daughter of Sione Kasimea & Siu Sika. She was born and raised in Tonga and came to America after completing a full-time church service LDS mission where she served among her own people. Here in America, she met her one true love, Tevita Kona'I Nau. They were married on November 24, 1980 and sealed for time and all eternity on February 12, 1983. They settled in the central coast of California in the city of Grover Beach. A couple years after their youngest child graduated from high school, they served a couple's church service LDS mission in their native hometown of Tonga. Not long after returning home from their mission, Losaline became a widow in 2007. She has since given all of her time and energy to what she valued most, her grandchildren. After 8 years of patiently waiting, she is now reunited with her eternal soul mate.

Services will be held in her honor Saturday June 20th from 9:00 am until 11:30 am. Her funeral Service will follow at Noon at the Provo Utah Wasatch Stake building: 1625 S Slate Canyon Dr. Provo, Utah.

“ Whenever my kids have something going on in Idaho, Auntie Line is there. My kids would ask, is auntie Line coming? This one time, my daughter Kaylie had a baptism at 10am and a basketball game at 8am, so we all went to the game. And you know how loud she is all the time especially when she's cheering...lol...before the game she asked Kaylie how many baskets she will make? Kaylie responded, just a couple auntie. Ok, Line says, I will give you one dollar for every basket. By the end of the game, Kaylie had 25 baskets...hahahaha...the whole time Line kept saying, ok Kaylie, that's enough baskets....lol

“ We are eternally grateful that we have the honor to care for Line and get her prepared for her final rest. This was the biggest shock we have had. When we first heard about Line all three of us (Peni, Shelly and Morgan) was in a state of shock. So young, so happy and full of life with her children and grandchildren. Our thoughts were that her children are still too young to have to go through this. Then our very next thought was how happy she and her eternal companion must be to be reunited. What a reunion that must be.. So very grateful for eternal families, the gospel in our lives and most importantly that Jesus died so we can live again. We Love you Nau Family...Peni, Shelly and Morgan Malohifo'ou

“ The Nau family was always the first to offer service to others. We will be eternally thankful for our friendship with them.
Such shocking news but Peni and Shelly are right what a reunion it must be on the other side of the veil.
Bishop Nau and Losaline were true Christlike people like no other.
They will be truly missed.
May God keep their children safe and strong members in His True church in honor of their parents.
We love you all,
The James and Sherry Bishop Family.

“ Losaline and Bishop Nau were the most selfless people I have ever met. You could not help but to be happy when Losaline entered the room. I can still remember the hours of laughter we shared when we had game night in Pismo Beach.

Losaline made sure my husband was well taken care of when he had neck surgery by bringing over many meals for him even though she had her own family to care for. Bishop Nau performed the wedding ceremony for my son Wayne and daughter-in-law Julia, and Losaline was behind the scenes helping to make the occasion even more special.

My heart is breaking for the loss of such a remarkable lady but I know she is in the arms of her eternal companion and celebrating their reunion.

Our thoughts and prayers are with their family that you will find peace and comfort in the knowledge that your parents are together again and they are watching over you.

With all our love,

Rodney and Starla Jackson
