

Malamalama T. Muagututi'a

October 16, 1952 - January 11, 2020

Our father, Malamalama Tu'ipelehake Muagututi'a, age 67, passed away peacefully surrounded by family in the evening of Saturday, January 11, 2020, in Springville Utah, after a long and courageous battle with cancer and kidney failure. He was born October 16, 1952 in the small village of Amouli in American Samoa to Ruta Fasi Tu'ipelehake and Tauanu'u Falemalama Malala Mamea. Later in his life, his mother was sealed to Ti'a Ropeti Ti'a in the Los Angeles Temple and our father is sealed to them as his eternal parents, and he loved his parents very much.

He grew up in American Samoa until the age of 8, before moving to Southern California. After graduating from high school, our father served as a Spanish speaking missionary in Bolivia in 1972. In 1975, he traveled to Oaxaca, Mexico on a bus where he met a loving and caring LDS Mexican family who took him in as their own son. He loved his Mexican parents, and family in Oaxaca very much. He worked as an English teacher and professor for most of his life having earned a Bachelor's of Arts degree from BYU-Hawaii in 1980, a Teaching Certificate in Teaching English as a Second Language from BYU-Provo in 1984, and a Master's of Arts degree from BYU-Provo in 1986.

He loved music and all things creative, such as cooking and painting. Being creative was an outlet that brought him great joy. He will forever be remembered for his talent of languages and his love for genealogy. Family history was always one of his great passions, and he loved to share his knowledge about his Samoan and Tongan roots. He was also a man of many languages and could fluently speak English, Samoan, Spanish, Swedish, and Portuguese, just to name a few. His grandchildren, especially, gave him renewed purpose and so much joy in life in his later years. His family and the gospel of Jesus Christ were most important and main priority in his life.

Our father first married Helena Inkeri Kääriä while they were students at BYU-Hawaii in 1977. They were sealed in the Los Angeles Temple. He later married Lolesi Lei'ataua of Manono, in 1994 in Samoa and was also sealed to her later on in the Samoa temple.

He is survived by his 4 children: Raija George (Sam - Jasmina, Amaija and SJ in Provo, UT), Ihana Heidenberg (Marcus - Kingston, Samson, and Melia in Sundsvall, Sweden), Elli Masoe (Tu'ufuli - Aulelei, Tai'si, and Alma in Sundsvall, Sweden), and Jasmina Tuipelehake-Muagutut'a (Henrik - Vera and Elsie in Sundsvall, Sweden) from his marriage to his first wife Helena (Sweden), as well as, by his 7 children: Seali'i Muagututi'a (Kayla - Saint, and Khavaly in Arcadia, CA), Tautaiapaopao Muagututi'a (US Navy in San Diego, CA), Malamalama Jr Muagututi'a (Provo, UT), Gau'ula Fanene (Iosefatu - Kila in Lehi, UT), Malini Muagututi'a (Samoa), Fatafehi Muagututi'a (Samoa) and Eti Muagututi'a (Samoa) from his marriage to his wife Lolesi (Samoa).

We will be celebrating the life of our Dear Dad Malamalama Tu'ipelehake-Muagututi'a on Saturday, January 25th . His services will be held at the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints located at 1625 S Slate Canyon Dr, Provo, UT. “ Malamalama T Muagututia.

I really don't know how to explain how much he mean to me. When him and Lolesi move to Samoa, they settle in Salelologa where we live close by each other. Him and my grandma are best buddy when it comes to family history discussions. His 7 children and I went to vaiola college, but if there's anything I wanna talk about, I'll talk about how much he push me so hard to learn English, he help me with a lot of my school assignment and also he was there during a lot of my achievements. He always told me I can do Hard things. When I was my mission I will always write him my weekly email.. and he will always reply back with simple phrase and I quote “ always remember Start Right, work Hard and Finish strong! He had so much compassion for everyone he was kind and also lovely.

Rest In Peace Uncle, will see you again..

Love you
