“ Mis sinceras y sentidas condolencias, desde Concepción, Chile, por la partida de mi amiga Marcela Josui Martínez Rojo, a quien tuve el privilegio de conocer en sus inicios universitarios, mientras yo me convertía en abogado, los que la hicieron crecer, soñar y partir a USA a cumplirlos, con la alegría y calidad humana que la hicieron inolvidable, ejerciendo su noble profesión de enfermera y formando su amada familia por esas tierras. Heroína de mil batallas anónimas por la vida y la salud de sus pacientes.. Para mi, una inolvidable amiga, con quien el tiempo y la distancia solo fueron una anécdota; para uds. una mamá, hija, y hermana ejemplar, de corazón lindo, que debe llenarlos de orgullo y muchos recuerdos hermosos. Estoy seguro que estará siempre con uds. y la verán en cada flor, las estrellas que iluminan el cielo y la brisa tibia que acaricie sus rostros. Pido me excusen estas disquisiciones, pero quise llevarle un pedacito de su Chile querido y no estar ausente en su despegue, del cual tuve oportuna noticia, por sus primos, mis grandes amigos Patricio y Marcelo. Que la fe que profesan los ayude a entender y aceptar que ella haya despegado antes y ahora vuele alto, Dios la bendiga por siempre y a toda su familia.

Mi abrazo fraterno- Nelson Lobos Zamorano

“ My dearest best friend! Thank you for being the best big sister that I never had!

Marcella meant everything to me! She and I met when we both worked at First Choice Home Health. She was a seasoned RN, I was a fairly new RN. I remember sitting on the opposite site of the cubicle in awe of the wealth of knowledge she had about something she was so passionate about-Hospice care. She truly cared about the patients that she provided care to. She made a difference!

Marcella would tell wonderful stories of her life growing up in Chile.

She loved sharing the many memories she had of taking her children to bear lake. She loved her children more than life itself!

Weston and Penelope your nana loved you so much!

Marcella was so grateful for her brother, Andres and all that he did for her.

Thank you to Applegate Hospice-Jay, Christina and her home health aide, thank you for being so good to her, she appreciated each one of you!

M thank you for the memories.. I'm grateful you are finally at peace!

I love you to the moon and back.

“ Un recuerdo cariñoso para Marcela, una gran e inolvidable amiga, de los tiempos de su ingreso a la Universidad de Concepción, como “mechona”, cariñosa denominación para los recién entrados a la Universidad, prima de mis grandes amigos. Mi recuerdo y un saludo desde tu querido Chile, sin importar el tiempo ni la distancia, que son solo una anécdota en la vida.

Estoy seguro que fuiste muy feliz e hiciste feliz a muchos, con tu vocación profesional y tu alegría. Un día nos encontraremos a conversar, y me contarás de cómo fuiste cumpliendo tus sueños y no será obstáculo la pobreza de mi idioma inglés.

Paz y conformidad para tu familia y amigos cercanos y paz y Alegría para ti.

“ Hermoso testimonio de vida Marcela, pero aún no se termina de escribir y ni el olvido que trae el tiempo la oscurecerá. La nueva recién comienza . . .

Un recuerdo especial de tu Chile querido

“ I worked with Marcela at First Choice Home Health & Hospice, She taught me a lot about hospice. I remember her love of shoes. We decorated the Christmas tree at work and she would go behind be moving the ornaments. You will be missed.

“ Marcela meant a lot to me. I met her when I started working for First Choice Home Health & Hospice. She took me under her wing almost immediately. There are a couple memories that meant the most to me. The first is the countless hours she spent on altering my wedding dress for me to make sure it was exactly the way I wanted. She even got meticulous on the beadwork. She put love into it, and never asked for anything in return. It turned out beautiful and I'll forever be grateful for the time she spent on it.

The second memory was the overwhelming love I felt when she showed up at my husband's funeral the day after she had chemo. She had called me a few days before and was heartbroken that she wouldn't be able to make it to the funeral, so I wasn't expecting to see her. But knowing that she was willing to drive to Colorado just to support me showed the dedication and love she had for her friends.

I love you and I will miss you, Marcela. I look forward to being able to see you again.
