“ Mrs. Proctor, I'm sure you don't remember me. I was Natalie's teacher in sixth grade. I was out of town and read her obituary on Monday evening. I want to express my sorrow to you on losing your daughter and my student. I remember a number of students I taught and I really remember my best ones. Natalie was one of the best. She was always dressed so appropriately and had a bag or purse over her shoulder. She sat on the front row of my classroom and always had a smile on her face no matter what I did. My wife and I went to the theatre in Murray and Natalie always sold us our tickets and she could count change accurately. I know there will hard times for you and Natalie's family, but we must remember the wonderful times spent with Natalie and the legacy she left for you to follow. My thoughts and prayers are with you as you morn the loss of a loved one. Larry Peterson
