

Pamela Ann Scarpelli

April 16, 1946 - July 29, 2019

Pamela Ann Scarpelli passed away on July 29, 2019 comfortably in her home surrounded by people who loved her.

Pamela was born in Chicago, Illinois to her parents Mary and Joseph Scarpelli.

Pamela lived a full and accomplished life. She attended ISU with a degree in Physical Education and Recreation in 1967. She taught in a public school in Chicago from 1976 to 1983. Pam was a group sales director for Hotel Utah.

In 1983, Pamela started her good business sense and was the owner of Apartment and Condominium Rental of Salt Lake City. In 1986, she became the owner and manager of a clothing consignment store, "The Greater Salt Lake Woman" fashion clothing stores for plus size women. Pam sat on the Board of Directors of Ski Utah and was part of the delegation in Budapest for bid for the 2002 Winter Olympics.

Pamela was a very smart and proud woman. She wanted plus size women everywhere to have fashionable clothing and to carry themselves with grace and beauty.

Pamela is survived by her adopted families, naming the Garcia's, Raymond, Tami LaTrell and Franky who saw her through to the very end.

Pamela is preceded in death by her Mother and Father, Mary and Joseph Scarpelli, grandparents and Aunt Theresa.

Pamela's wishes were to be cremated and have her ashes spread in Alta where she will ski the mountains for the last time on this earth. We won't hold services for Pam, however, anyone wanting to help spread her ashes is welcome.

Thank you to all those that shared in the last few years of Pamela's life; care centers, nurses and aids. A special thank you to Serenity Funeral Home for their amazing kindness and patience.

“ I met Pam in the mid 70's when I worked in Alta, UT. What a fantastic lady and a huge supporter of Stubby Pecker and the Thrusters, when they played at the Tram room on Thursday nights.
I have not seen Pam in years but am so happy she had a wonderful life that helped so many. RIP

“ A friend in SLC forwarded Pam's obituary. I knew Pam when I worked at Alta in the 70's. We called her "Gaiter Pam" because she made ski boot gaiters for a bunch of the ski bums. She was gregarious and quick to smile and laugh. I last saw her at Park City many years ago. She was in a restaurant at the ski area, saw me walk past and ran out and gave me a big hug. She was a nice lady, who went on to have a full life and interesting career. It saddens me to read her obituary. She will now be a part of the mountain that she loved. Drive that fall line Pam. “ I have SO many memories of my dear sweet Pamela, as we know with Pam she had a rough exterior but she really was kind and witty and funny. Pamela Scarpelli taught me so many things, some where lessons I didn't necessarily want to learn because I had to look at myself a little harder than I wanted to but I did look inward a lot and I saw what I needed to see. I love you Pamela I am so grateful we had you in our lives, you changed me and us in so many ways and I will forever be grateful. I am glad we got to see you thru to the end and carry out your wishes of being at home when you left this earthly life. No matter how mad we got at each other there was that something about you that kept a hold on our hearts that we couldn't leave you alone. May you be at peace, we will see you to your last run down the Alta ski slopes, fly high with your mom and pop and doggies, you left your mark here in Salt Lake City and everywhere you went. You will be missed keep giving those around you a run for their money and I hope you will get to have many conversations with your dad that you didn't get to have here. You will be missed and forever loved. Tami, Raymond (will say his last words too) LaTrell, Franky Babygirl and Monkey!! Love you mama
