

Patricia Anne Foist

November 1, 1977 - April 28, 2017

Patricia Anne Foist (Trish or Patty) 39, of West Valley City, passed away Friday, April 28, 2017, at her home surrounded by friends and family, after a long battle with cancer.

Trish was born on November 1, 1977 in Derby CT to Patricia Moran and James Torello Senior. She graduated from Wilbur Cross High School in 1995. On August 8, 2008 she married Caleb Allen Foist. They had a son, Carter Lee Foist, March 29, 2014.

Trish earned an associate degree from Gateway Community College in 1998. She continued to pursue a degree in nursing at Salt Lake City Community College. Trish worked in the medical industry for 16 years. During this time she realized she had a passion and talent for nail design. She worked as a nail technician, first as a hobby, building her clientele, then receiving her certification in 2010. She built her own business "Nail'd It!" and was a creative nail technician. Her clients appreciated her originality and attention to detail.

Trish loved outdoor activities; hiking, Frisbee golf, walking her dog Notch, and playing in the park with her husband and son.

Trish is survived by her parents; Pat and James, husband, Caleb; son, Carter; brothers; Anthony Jagrosse, James Torello Junior, sisters; Irene Affinito, Donna Norton, and several nieces and nephews. Trish is preceded in death by her brother William Norton.

Thank you to all her family and friends in CT and UT for their support and prayers

An informal memorial/celebration is being planned at the Foist home, TBD. Please call Caleb for more information (801-707-6477) or email at cfoist@gmail.com.

“ I miss you too much on nights where I just lay awake thinking of why a horrible disease had to take such a wonderful person. I wish you were there to see me graduate, you said you'd try to make it. I'm just wondering when you'll be ready to come home again. Always on my mind and in my heart auntie. I love you, forever.

“ You made the world a beautiful place just by being in it. We will miss your contagious smile and the incredible light you brought to every event. For now, our nails need fixing and our hearts are broken; the former can be remedied but the latter will take a lifetime. Rest peacefully my friend.

“ Baby Sis,
I can't believe it's been a week since your passing. Everyone said it would get easier, but everyday I think of you from the moment I wake up until I go to bed at night. The only peace I have is knowing that You & Bill are together now "dancing & singing" in Heaven!
You both are our angels, looking down on us. Love you to the moon and back

“ A week went by and I'm still grappling in the fact that you're gone. I don't understand why God took you away so quickly and I guess I never will, but I'll see you again. Thank you for always being there for me, even when you were thousands of miles away. Thank you for teaching me that there's light in every situation, even if it seems like the darkest time. And thank you for being the best aunt you could ever be to me in just the 17 years you knew me. I love you with all my heart and I wish I didn't have to struggle with the pain of losing you. The things I would do to see that contagious smile one last time...you promised that I'd see you again so now I'm just counting down the days.

“ It takes a minute to find a special person, an hour to appreciate them, and a day to love them, but it will take a lifetime to forget them. Trish was that special friend who made memories a treasure. Love you always.

“ This is the first I am writing anything regarding Trish and her passing because I still cannot believe she is gone.. I worked with trish in Orange, ca at a cardiologists office and became instant friends.. while learning to take blood pressure readings, trish would run up and down the aisles getting her heart rate up to give me a good reading.. even when I moved to Chicago, she wrote me and we stayed pen pals for some time.. Although it had been years since last seeing her, I will never forget the funny and outgoing personality she had---I absolutely loved her sarcasm.. miss you girl; I know I'll see you again some day..

“ I worked with Trish for over a year when I first moved to Utah. She is by far my favorite co-worker and a friend I'll cherish forever. We danced and sang to a Whitney Houston. She actually had a great voice. We tried every freaking color of gel polish on my nails. We cooked at work together. We went and played with Notch on our lunch breaks. We had a million inside jokes that only she and I shared. That girl was such a hard worker. She was a perfectionist and never slacked in any of her work whether it was nails or medical tech. She fiercely loved her family and was generous. She was super strong and could beat me in arm wrestling and squats. Which we had competitions at work. She was compassionate and caring. She was strong willed and opinionated and didn't put up with anyone's crap. My heart mourns for her family. I know she's watching over you, Caleb, Carter, And Notch. Love, Suz

“ Cousin Patty (because that's who you will always be to me)~so glad that we got to spend a few months with you. You had a desire and fire in you like I've never seen in anyone before. You suffered so much but always tried to keep a smile on your face. You are a beautiful soul! You are missed but we will forever hold you in our hearts.

Thank you for THE BEST purple gel polish manicure that I ever had!

“ Aw sis... I still cannot believe you're gone. I just joked with you about some basic nails. I loved your fun personality, always joking even when you weren't feeling well. You always tried to keep positive. I miss you so much.. I will never forget you♡

“ Auntie I would give anything to have you back :(I really wish Carter would have gotten to know you how your nieces and nephews knew you. We will keep your memory alive and through us Carter will know the vivacious, spunky, passionate, beautifully raw person you were. I miss you & love you! Be ready to hook my nails up when I get there! The best to ever do it!!! My sweet angel aunt. Rest in paradise. Until we meet again. XOXO

“ Trish...you left me speechless. It is so hard to believe. The few short months you were just here doing our nails, running to the diner, a few stops to CVS for prescriptions and out endless nights just hanging out. I'll never forget the cheese fries at the diner! You made the waitress take them back because they were not good enough for you, that's why we love you because you hold nothing back! In our hearts forever !! Rosa
