“ Mom,
Thank you for the many moments we were able to share. Your many trips to Idaho and Arizona provided for some very memorable adventures. Our many shopping events provided laughter, smiles, and secrets that will always be treasured. These last few months of your life here on earth were blessed with fun picnics, doggy kisses, and lots of hugs. As you listened to Elvis in your last moments we could all tell you were at peace and this brought us all together as a family that were there with you. May you rest now and rise in glory. I am sure Dad and Polly were waiting for you with a cup of coffee with smiles galore. May you rest in Peace and Rise in Glory.
Love,
Chris

“ We went on your 71st Birthday to get you your 1st tattoo & me my 2nd. Dakota & I spend numerous weekends w/you & Grandpa P. & wouldn't have had it any other way! In remembrance of all of our discussions on what you wanted when you died, I remember you said you wanted everyone to laugh & have a good time! With all seriousness aside if you feel it wasn't her kind of service, then throw her a party!

“ There are so many memories to retract.one of my favorites were drinking coffee with you at night. I am so deeply horrified that your final rights and wishes were taken away from you.

Please give Grandpa and UncleMark a big squeeze for me! I love you so very much.

“ OH! YOU FORGOT SOMEONE KATHY IF YOU CAN'T REMEMBER

Bev lowry - October 31, 2018 at 12:28 AM

“ Fuck you valorie her final rights were not to be cut into little pieces and stuck on a shelf until another group of school students (student Drs) are ready to learn my god I don't know anyone that has donated their mom or father to science you must be in a group all your own that's pretty low

Bev lowry - October 31, 2018 at 01:15 AM

“ Maybe it's because your a selfish piece of garbage and her dying was your fault you put her in that hell hole where she died. You had no right to do what you did! You have to make everything about you. As for the comment that you made about Joanne she is the only one who deicated going to see her mother every week at the very least

dakota goff - November 17, 2018 at 12:30 PM

“ And she couldn't even Have a full funeral because of you because of you like seriously you're going to say fuck you Valory no fuck you Beverly

dakota goff - November 17, 2018 at 04:48 PM

“ Oh yes dacota I'm the one that's selfish only I'm not the one that decided to donate my mother to science and her be used as a school study and spread over 5 states and as for her wishes if you all wanted to grant her final wishes why the hell didn't you go and do it (could it be that you all didn't have the real power of attorney?) so maybe you need to sit down and think before you speak ok otherwise shut up because unless you were with grandma every day then you can't say anything got it? Because I have the proof that none of you ever came up to see her and it's written on a paper so maybe you just dreamed that you were there huh! So before you open your big mouth get the real facts first ok ?

“ Mom I love you very much and wish your final after life choices could of been honored. I'm sure you are now with a lot of loved ones that wene waiting for you. Thank you for being such a wonderful mother. Joanne

Joanne Gibson - October 02, 2018 at 07:20 AM

“ Read valories text Joanne maybe if that's what she wanted you should have paid for the funeral instead of writing a bunch of lies also you donated her to science what a stupid thing to do and you said you cared so much for her yet you hardly seen her while she was in the rest home
