“ Pat, I was saddened to hear of Quinn's death. I'm sorry I didn't know about it in time to attend his memorial service in Liberty last Monday. Ruth Clark called me just tonight to inform me. Somehow I missed it in the paper. Gail died 6 years ago and was buried on a cold winter day in the Liberty Cemetery - just like Quinn. I know you will have many lonely days and nights without him, but I also know that your knowledge of eternal life and eternal unions will make it easier for you to cope, as it has for me. I am glad that most of your family are close by, and I hope that you will feel the love and prayers that come your way from myself and others. I pray that God's comfort and blessings will be with you and your family. Sincerely, Dianne Jones, Harrisville, Utah
