

Randall Keith "Randy" Malcolm

January 9, 1958 - November 22, 2013

Randall Keith Malcolm passed away on Friday November 22, 2013 in his Taylorsville home after a battle with cancer. Randy married the love of his life, Lisa Marie Malcolm, 20 years ago. They had 3 girls together and he had a son from a previous marriage, who he adored. He cared for his nephews and nieces like they were his own. He was so proud of his family.

Randy truly lived. He lived without a care in the world and he was always on the go. He loved boating, fishing, camping, golfing, shooting pool and he seemed to be great at all of it. Randy was very competitive. He loved to be in a crowd, he loved having people around all of the time. He really liked to talk to people, he would talk to anyone about anything. He made an impact on so many and was kind to everyone.

He is survived by his wife, Lisa; Son, Justin; Daughters, Casey, Courtney and Megan; Mother, Lois Fern Malcolm; Siblings, Carol Swasey, Jeff Malcolm, Jim (Diana) Malcolm, Laurie (Alan) Hill, Julie Furrow and Polly Malcolm. Grandchildren, Kyler, Treyton, Evelyn, Joey, Gavin and Gage. Numerous nieces, nephews and friends.

Preceded in death by Morris Keith Malcolm (father) Mitzi Malcolm (sister-in-law) and Melissa Kimball (niece).

A Memorial Service will be held on Monday November 25th, 2013 at 2:00pm at The LDS ward house on 3045 W Bernina St (5855 S). There will be a luncheon immediately following the service.

There will be a viewing at 5:30pm on the same day for immediate family members and close friends.

The family would like to thank Hospice Care from Intermountain Health Care and would also like to thank all of the amazing hospital staff, nurses and doctors that cared for him. We truly appreciate your hard work.

Please share your memories and condolences to the family at www.serenicarefuneralhome.com

Events

NOV

25

Celebration of Life

02:00PM - 03:00PM

Hazelhurst Ward

3045 Bernina Street, Taylorsville, UT, US, 84118

NOV

25

Luncheon

03:00PM - 04:30PM

Hazelhurst Ward

3045 Bernina Street, Taylorsville, UT, US, 84118

Comments

“ Dad it's getting closer and closer to the one year mark and I don't want to believe it still. I love you and miss you so much it hurts. Every time I think about you my eyes start to water, not because I'm sad but because I just miss the memories. I miss you laughing and making jokes, I miss you kicking my butt at pool. I miss putting stickers on your back and giving your long hair pig tails. I just miss you, and I know mom misses you, she talks about you a lot, we all still do. You have not been forgotten and you will never be forgotten. You're never too far away, you're always in our hearts. I miss you tons dad and until we see each other again... I love you daddy. Rip

Megan Malcolm - November 18, 2014 at 05:50 PM

“ I remember growing up you always had a smile on your face and a twinkle in your eye. You lived everyday to its fullest and cherished life. As a child i always wanted more of your attention, but you had so much love to give, you were always surrounded by people who loved you and had many friends. You've taught me to your enjoy life and cherish it because we never know when it may be our last. I'm glad to know you went out with a smile on your face with the comforts of your family. I am very thankful that we were able to tell eachother goodbye and that i could tell you i lived you one last time before you left. I still look to you for help and advice and simply think what would my father do? How would he handle it? What would he say? I know you'd tell me to be strong, to take a deep breath and relax because everything would be okay. You always knew exactly what to say. I remember on your birthday it was during a snowstorm and i wanted to come visit you. I did and you told me not to leave, but i did anyways and you begged me to be safe, i got into a car accident that day on the freeway and i called you after and you calmed me down and told me you had that feeling something was wrong before i even left. I kept thinking i should've listened. I mean it was your birthday, and you wanted me to stay. I'm sorry i was so rebellious as a child and i see now that you only ever had my best interests in mind. You were an incredible person dad and the world took you way too soon. I'm just glad that i am able to recognize the way i feel and listen to you, i take you everywhere i go. You are always in my heart and on my mind. Thank you for being there for me and always watching over me. I love you dad. RIP Randy Malcolm 11/22/13

Casey Malcolm - November 18, 2014 at 03:00 PM

“daddy I love you so much. I remember putting on your hats and saying "I'm little Randy" I have so many more memories to share.. but I love you so much and miss you. Until we meet again daddy??? rip

Megan Malcolm - November 29, 2013 at 01:40 AM

“When Randy got his trach and I was going over twice a day, we really became close. The first time his trach needed to be changed I decided to get him back for all the years of him teasing me. I took the trach out and started reading the instructions he was watching me so I decided to continue and said " Dang all these things are different...I don't think I have done this one before". His eyes grew wide and I started laughing and assured him I could do this in my sleep. We both laughed. The last time I saw my brother I knew he was very close to leaving us. I gave him a hug and he grabbed my hand and kissed it. Everytime I think of that moment I don't see my sick brother. I see my brother like this picture. Good looking, healthy and always smiling. Love you Randy until we meet again.

Julie Malcolm - November 25, 2013 at 07:10 AM

“Had so many good times with you and your family! From boating, playing pool, BBQ's, to karaoke. Randy you lived life with so much love and caring! You will be greatly missed. And always remembered. Your spirit will live on with your wife, children and grandchildren. Love you. Rest in peace.

Dianna Malcolm - November 24, 2013 at 04:31 AM

“When i was watching his kids he would take me home and just tell these jokes about all kind of stuff i love You uncle

kristi Malcolm - November 24, 2013 at 12:32 AM

“When i was watching his kids he would take me home and just tell these jokes about all kind of stuff i love You uncle

kristi Malcolm - November 24, 2013 at 12:32 AM

“Oh Randy, I just found out of your passing. I am so sad, I wish I could have said goodbye. You were always so much fun and I loved you like a brother. We first met over 40 years ago....wow, where does the time go? I have so many memories of you, my nieces and Kevan Klotovich. You were a beautiful person and I will miss you terribly. My condolences to your family. Love your brother, Rest in Peace.

Sandy Frazier - February 25, 2014 at 01:39 PM