“ It is with deep sorrow the passing of Randy. He was my friend, a fellow Scout, Explorer, seeker of truth. We never did find the "beans" here. May the Lord receive you into his arms. Happy hunting my friend!

“ I grew up with Randy and he was even my boyfriend a time or two between grade one and grade six. I loved his family, his sister and my sister were best friends and his mother and my mother were very good friends. I am so sad that he is gone, I was hoping to visit with him at out 50th class reunion a few weeks ago. This world has lost a special man.

“ We grew up together in the old Jameston, Idaho Ward, and were classmates in the Shelley, Idaho schools.. Randy has always been a warm, happy, jovial person. He was great to be around and made you feel welcome and at ease. We were looking forward to seeing him at our 50 year class reunion and were saddened to find out of his passing. We extend our heartfelt condolences to his family, that this wonderful man has gone from us for now. We also know that our futures will cross paths again in a much better place where our joy will be full..

“ Randy will be missed, especially at any gathering. Randy could take any negative and turn it into a positive in life. His smile was contagious and his laugh was intoxicating. He was the one that would start a water fight and somehow would teach a spiritual life lesson during it. He is truly a great man and I am sure that his brothers that passed before him are now laughing with him. We love u Randy and our prayers will be with your family.

“ Where could i even start? He is my older brother, teacher, confidant - a true friend - he had an unwavering positive attitude towards life. Whenever we would talk, I would ALWAYS come away refreshed & more at peace with life. He is a great example of actively enduring to the end. I love him for his consistent "We will go and do!" attitude in the midst of unconquerable odds - with him, and his Faith in Christ, anything was possible. My heart goes out to his Wife, Linda and all of his family. May you be blessed with the Spirit of Peace at this very difficult time. THANK YOU for all that you did for Randy through the years - especially in these last difficult months. He is desperately missed.

“ I still remember Brother Mecham from the time I moved into River Grove 2nd ward. He always had a smile on his face and a happy, joyful countenance. I loved the comments he would make in Sunday School class because they always made me think. He was such a wonderful man. Sending love and condolences to you all Mechams!
