Rebecca Gail (Pigott) Swenson

Rebecca (Becky) passed away November, 27, 2019, in Salt Lake City, Utah after undergoing heart surgery. She fought a courageous battle for life and will be missed in every way.

Becky was born October 12, 1959, in Lake Jackson, Texas to Arthur William Pigott, II and Geraldine (Peterson) Pigott Golding. The family moved to Utah Valley in 1970 where Becky attended school, graduating from Timpview High school in 1978.

Becky married Gregory Leon Swenson on March 22, 1980, in Provo Utah and they had two beautiful children, Natalie Rebecca and David Leon. They made their home in Salem, Utah.

She was a friend and teacher to everyone, especially children. She was always the favorite with the neighborhood children and nieces and nephews. They would play for hours. Among a thousand talents, one that we most remember about Becky was her sense of humor; Becky could find a silver lining in every cloud. She had a unique ability to make people laugh. Her sense of humor, beautiful smile and sparkling eyes improved the lives of countless people with whom she associated. An hour with Becky was more productive than a week of psychotherapy—and way cheaper.

Becky worked at Zion Upholstery, Taylor Maid Costume and Design and later as a seamstress and designer for the Utah Pageant of the Arts in Salt Lake City. Becky was extremely talented and excelled in knitting, sewing and beadwork always creating her own unique patterns. She was the busiest person we've ever known, always able to create something out of nothing. Becky's remarkable creativity in arts-and-crafts made her a sought-after addition to any artistic endeavor. She will be greatly missed.

Becky is survived by her husband Greg, daughter Natalie and exceptionally beautiful and gifted granddaughter, Ruby Leigh and by her brothers and sisters: James Robert Pigott, Peterson Pigott (deceased), Nancy Kay Foster, Arthur William Pigott III, John Andrew Pigott, Lisa Merrill and David Allen Pigott. She now joins her beloved son, David, her brother Pete, father Arthur William, Jr., and mother, Geraldine where they are still hugging and laughing too hysterically to be bothered by mere mortal concerns.

We love you, dear Becky.

“ Being around Becky was magical! Her laughter was contagious and will be etched in my memory forever. She had a heart of gold and I'll never forget how great she treated my children and grandchildren. I hope she's listening to some great guitar playing by Dave and having a good time with her sweet mama! Love you, bugs!

“ Aw Bec...I cant believe you're gone. You have always been bigger than life to me...your smile, your laugh, your scream (oh that scream) and your sense of humor. There are so many memories I have of you, it's hard to share only a few. Our teenage years were crazy, dangerous and full of fun. I will never forget our "double joint & wild fire" days. Our Park City days were busy, busy, busy!! Staying up all night measuring ingredients to making granola to cutting vegetables to learning John Travolta dances...lol. Not to mention cleaning rooms, doing a zillion dishes and having bing-bag fights. Yes, we were trouble and we did so many silly things but I wouldn't change a thing! Although we didn't stay close as we aged, I knew that when I saw you we'd hug, cry and talk for hours. I am so grateful for these memories because they are of you. I will never forget them or you. Love you Becky -- your friend Jolene.

“ Greg are thoughts and prayers are with you and your family. I remember the reunion we had at Salem pond years ago. Becky taught all the kids how to make braided bracelets. Her patients and humor was amazing. I always remember how patient she was with the oldest and the youngest of our family. What an extraordinary woman she was. Love you Greg

“ There are no words to describe how amazing Becky is. I have loved and will always cherish the time that I spent with her and her family. Becky and Greg were so good to my kids. Rich and I couldn't have asked for any better friends/ neighbors than them. Our hearts just break for them all. My favorite day of Becky is when she got a hold of Natalie's Willie Nelson hat while Nat was out, and had to show me. She was always so proud of Natalies accomplishments. Becky strut around with that hat on about as much as Nat did. lol. and she looked amazing wearing it! I am definitely going to miss you my friend.
