

Richard Bird Peirce

July 21, 1941 - February 27, 2018

Richard Bird Peirce, 76, first child of Gordon B. and Naomi Louise Bird Peirce, passed away February 27, 2018, of complications from a heart attack.

He grew up in Springville, Utah and attended school there. After spending one year at Utah State University, he served an LDS mission in the Western States Mission. Upon his return he enrolled at BYU. On May 6, 1966, he married the love of his life, Mary Kay Lawrence, in the Manti LDS Temple. Together they became the parents of five absolutely wonderful children, who, in turn, gave them fifteen(almost sixteen) incredible grandchildren. Rick spent his life working in men's retail, twice owning his own businesses. He didn't retire until the age of seventy-five. He loved his Heavenly Father and his Savior Jesus Christ and had a firm testimony of them. He knew the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-Day Saints was true and because of this, he served faithfully in many positions in the church, among them MTC Branch President, Bishop, High Councilor and others. He also served a second mission with his wife in Columbus , Ohio, from 2013-2014 and was presently serving as an ordinance worker in the Provo Temple. He is predeceased by his parents and is survived by his wife, Mary Kay, and children: Tawni and Jeff Porcaro, Brandon and Camille Peirce, Rhett and Jenteal Peirce, Devin and Tina Peirce, and Tiffani and Jeffrey Ford. His beautiful grandchildren are Cameron and Blythe, Skyler, Jordan and Morgan, Hayden, Hayley, Lauren, Brooklyn, Lexi , Marissa, Chandler, Jocelyn, Ava, Brynn, Chase and Ty. He is also survived by his sisters Linda Smuin and Karen Davis and his brother Don Peirce. Many brothers and sister-in-law, nieces, nephews, cousins and one aunt and uncle survive him, as well.

“ In this life there are few men who reach the level of Christlike love that Rick Peirce did. He blessed the lives of so many with his gentle ways and firm testimony of the Savior. May those who knew him rejoice in the great opportunity that was theirs, and carry his memory and his testimony with them, to bless the lives of others.

“ I am so grateful for my wonderful enduring friendship with Rick and Mary Kay for 37 years. They took me under their wings at a very challenging time in life when I moved from North Carolina with my two teenage sons. I will cherish the wonderful memories of this good man who exemplified the love of Jesus Christ.

Oh, how much we love you all and will miss Rick's extraordinary gift of making one feel loved and accepted. He had (has) so much light that lifted us all.

Sending love and prayers of comfort to Mary Kay and her beautiful family. My husband and I want so much to be the wind beneath your wings during the difficult days ahead.
