“ It has been a little over a year & it is still so surreal to me that you are gone! I miss you more than anything in this world, my love! Our children miss you more than anyone could imagine! I would give anything to to see you, talk to you & just touch your face. You are on my mind nonstop Rom. I hope I am making you proud. I am doing everything I possibly can to keep it all together. I wish there was a timeline & a specific way I am supposed to grieve. I get ok for a bit & then it sneaks up on me again! I wish you could come home but that would be selfish of me to ask that. I am glad you are in such a happy & beautiful place. I don't wish you back in this tattered world! I know we will see you again & for that, I am extremely comforted. Life would just be so much easier & better if you were here! I miss my best friend! I miss my husband! We miss our daddy! We love you to the moon & back!! Until we see you again, my sweet love!
Love, Your Wife, "Your Forever", Nikki

“ Nikki, I've known and loved you my whole life. Even though I only spent 10 short days with Roman, he felt instantly like family, as the man you made a family with. That you will bury your husband today is unfathomable to me. Words fail. With a heavy heart and fond memories, I remember Roman's love for you, Hunter, Riley, Addy and Aspyn. May Roman rest in peace and may your family grow in love through the trials ahead. All my love to the Ballard's and Davis'. Never forget I'm just a phone call away. -"Cousin Lindsey"
