“ I have known Shauna for many years since she played on my sister's softball team when I was in Elementary School. She was so sweet and such a beautiful soul and I was better for having known her. She would send me text messages every day on my cell and I truly miss those from her. We would talk on the phone or text every day and she was always so positive and was always smiling. She was like a sister to me over all of these years and one of my very dear, best friends. In fact she had just agreed to be in my upcoming wedding which we were both really excited about. You could always count on Shauna if you needed something or just to talk. I miss you girl and I know that you are with Craig again, both in God's arms. Be at peace because you truly are an angel. I love you!

My thoughts and prayers go out to her parents, her sons, her family, and to all of her friends. We will all miss you dearly my friend!

“ Shauna was a sweet and generous soul! I remember how she gave out tickets to the fair when she was given some. Always caring for others. She will be missed a great deal.

“ My prayers for you family Dakota. My favorite memory of your mom is the day I met her and from there on out we became the best of friends. She is the most beautiful person I have ever met and kept true friendship and turned into sisterhood. My fondest memory was and will be forever is that on one of my bad days I could call her and if I cursed she would say woo woo what's up with the potty mouth. She will always be in my life no matter where she is with Craig. I love you Shauna Lord until we meet again my dear friend. Comfort for your boys and their families. Love Sharon Valladares
