

Susanne Ti Settle

May 4, 1949 - August 21, 2015

Susanne Ti Settle, 66, passed away on Friday, August 21, 2015, in her home in Provo, UT, surrounded by her immediate whanau (family). She was born May 4, 1949 in Martinborough, New Zealand to Ruanui Hamahona and Ti Temaari Waiti MacDonald. Susanne & David (Honey) were married and sealed for time and all eternity in the Hamilton, New Zealand LDS Temple on June 22, 1974.

Sue's main focus and priority in life was always her sweet Honey as well as both immediate and extended whanau. Nothing was more important, which is why she was always deeply involved in passing on her cultural knowledge to her children by way of music and genealogy that her father had begun when she was just a little girl in the Wairarapa (NZ). As an LDS member, Sue had a great love for the Savior and always strived to pattern her life as a faithful servant. From the moment she left the Land of the Long White Cloud called Aotearoa New Zealand shortly after she married Honey, they settled in Laie, Hawaii with their five (5) children. While in Laie, she built many close bonds/friendships and unofficially adopted many kids by way of teaching seminary for the LDS Church. Along with teaching, she was tremendously involved in the community, bringing all nationalities together in making the community strong, united and diverse – regardless of your nationality, status and where you came from. There wasn't one solitary resident in Laie, Hawaii who didn't know "Sister Settle". Sue continued her work even after moving to Provo, Utah in the summer of 1998, where she spent the remainder of her life. Even though she had to leave Hawaii, it did not derail Sue's passion for her culture, community and genealogy work. Sue had the capacity to touch the lives of every single person she came in contact with throughout the world! Her zest-for-life and "small kine" personality attracted the most distant stranger. Those who know Sue, know that there are not enough words to describe the countless lives she's touched along with her work that she has accomplished for her family, friends, the church and communities that she has lived in.

Sue is survived by her "Honey", David Settle (husband); Children - Ti Temaari (Keala) Settle (daughter), Kalani Rhodes (daughter); Chad Settle (son); Priscilla Settle (daughter-in-law); Kelly Tufuga (daughter); Jonathan Tufuga (son-in-law); Ryan Peterson (daughter); Sreeve Peterson (son-in-law); Grandchildren - Apirana Peterson (grandson); Tamatea Peterson (grandson); Anahera Peterson (granddaughter); Darian Settle (grandson); O'shea Settle (grandson); Kaiaarahi Peterson (grandson); Zion Peterson (grandson); Saul Rhodes (grandson); Jayden Settle (grandson); Suitofagaoali'i Tufuga (granddaughter); Joel Rhodes (grandson); Tu'ifao Tufuga II (grandson); Urijah Settle (grandson); Siblings - Haumoana MacDonald (brother, deceased); Lorraine MacDonald (sister); Louis MacDonald (brother); Melvin MacDonald (brother, deceased); Yvonne MacDonald (sister); Charles MacDonald (brother); Hemi (James) MacDonald (brother); Karl Shadlock (brother, deceased); Ruanui MacDonald (brother); Myra MacDonald (sister); LaRene MacDonald (sister); Helen MacDonald (sister, deceased); Alexander MacDonald (brother); Romaine MacDonald (brother); Kenneth MacDonald (brother); Edeena Shadlock Collie (sister)

“ So sorry to hear of your loss. What a wonderful person she was and still is. Love the Balinski family.

“ The one thing that I remember most about her is that she always tried to find the best in people. Even those who everyone had given up on, she stuck with them and found value in them.

This is a sad loss for her family and her community.

“ Dear Dave: I can truly empathize with you in the loss of your dear wife. I only wish I could tell you it gets easier. In a way it does, you learn to live with the loneliness. Sue was a strong, vivacious woman and will be greatly missed by all who knew her. We so appreciated your kindness to Bruce, and your friendship in the 9th Ward. God Bless and comfort you Dave.
I won't be to the funeral as I will be out of town at a family reunion, but my thoughts and love will be with you.
Love
