

Terry W Keady

August 25, 1945 - July 8, 2019

Terry W. Keady passed away peacefully in his home on July 8th, 2019. He was born on August 25th, 1945 in Sacramento, California. On August 25, 1978, he married the love of his life, Marilyn Hendrickson.

Terry loved working on cars and would spend many Saturdays in his garage tinkering on cars with his son and close friends. Every year in July, you would find him at the racetrack watching the drag races. When he wasn't tinkering or talking about cars, you would find him hanging with his granddaughter Amya.

Terry is survived by his wife, Marilyn, son, Neil (Mistie), daughters Crystal and Jessica, 6 grandkids, 5 great-grandchildren, 3 brothers and 3 sisters.

He was preceded in death by 1 sister, 2 brothers, his parents and in-laws.

A private get-together will be determined at a later time.

The family would like to give a big thank you to all of his doctors and nurses.

“ I know it's a little late but we didn't know that this occurred. I guess no one deemed it necessary to mention that Frank Harper is also his son and we have two children that were his grandchildren. Thanks for letting us know. We would have liked to pay our respects.

“ I remember when Marilyn and Terry got married on both of their birthdays. I'm so glad that my ex husband Nick and Terry stayed good friends after we got divorced. There was never a dull moment around those guys. My thoughts and prayers are with Marilyn, Neil, Jessica, Crystal, Mikey and their families. I know Jessica was very happy to see her dad. One more time before he passed away. And for him to meet Legend. I have a very special prayer for Marilyn and Amya. I know this is a very hard time for them. The world revolved around Amya in Terry's eyes. He loved her so much. All my Love to all the family and friends. Connie Day
