“ Lo siento tanto mi querido amigo. Te conocí en el trabajo y nos hicimos buenos amigos. Por años mantuvimos comunicación y fue uno de los primeros en enterarse de tú enfermedades. Siempre a cada día pedía por ti. Que Dios te bendiga en donde estes. Siempre estarás en mi mente, amigo.

“ I had the privilege of working with Alan at BYU when he was a student employee for the BYU ARTS Partnership. He was talented, funny and very creative. We continue to use his work today, long after his graduation. I remember meeting his parents when they came for graduation. I wish to express my deepest sympathy to the family and my admiration for Alan. I am so sorry for your loss. Alan was so proud of you and the contributions in education and other areas that you made. He spoke of his home and family with pride and happiness. I am sorry that i was not aware of his illness or passing so i did not attend the service. This is a tragic loss and i am grateful that Alan was a part of my life.
