1967 - 2015

'Tomorrow will be a better day'

Andrea Lyn Meadows, 47, passed away suddenly and unexpectedly due to heart complications March 4, 2015.

She was born on May 7, 1967, in Salt Lake City, Utah, to Larry and Ann Eldredge. She married her high school sweetheart, Mark Meadows, in Salt Lake City, Utah, June 16, 1989.

Andrea grew up in Sandy, Utah. She graduated from Brighton High School and attended Salt Lake Community College. She resided in Riverton, Utah with her husband and their two girls. Andrea was a devoted wife, mother, and daughter. Her luck was not always very good but she landed her 'four-leaf clover' with her loving husband and two girls. Together Mark and Andrea raised their two beautiful girls to be strong, compassionate, and loving of others. Andrea and her mother had a bond that was above and beyond; they were best friends. She loved everything to do with family, including her vacations to Lake Powell. Andrea had many health trials during her wonderful lifetime, but she always remained our 'Fun Bus.' Nothing ever brought this tough lady down without a fight and her beautiful smile.

Andrea is survived by her extremely dedicated husband Mark Meadows, her loving girls Markelle Ann Meadows, who gave her mom the strength to get through each day and Alexandria (Lexi) Meadows, her best friend, her loving father Larry and her mother, 'Her Rock', Ann Eldredge, grandmother Maxine Clark, brothers Steve (Bev) Eldredge and Curt (Teresa) Eldredge, numerous aunts, uncles, cousins, in-laws, nieces, and nephews.

Preceded in death by Grandpa Doug Clark, father and mother in-law Elmer and Glenna Meadows, cousin Jason Hansen, and niece Lisa Meadows.

A viewing will be held in her honor Sunday March 8th from 6pm to 8pm and Monday from 10am to 11am with services to follow. Viewings and services will be held at the LDS chapel in Riverton, Utah located at 12998 South 1300 West, where flowers can be delivered Sunday evening or Monday morning. Burial will be at Larkin Sunset Gardens at 1950 East 10600 South, Sandy, Utah.
