

Andrew John Moore

September 2, 1995 - April 7, 2016

A mighty soul passed through this earth and left us wiser and more humble than before. Andrew “Drew” John Moore and his twin brother, Thomas, were born of goodly parents, Ed and Julie Moore. His shiny soul delighted us all and he was adored. Andrew was a genius, above us all, and with that gift came great challenges. Forever more, he will remain in our hearts and we are filled with peace knowing he is in the care of his father’s arms.

Andrew is survived by his mother, Julie Ann Moore, his twin brother, Thomas James Moore, and his siblings Christian and Brooklyn, and too many family and friends to name.

“ He and I use to hang out all the time. I would spend time with both of them to get out of the house. They make me laugh all the time to ease the stress by my mother which helped. He will be missed. I hope the whole family is doing well.

“ I know I am a little late on hearing this news, but I wanted to send my deepest condolences to Thomas and his family. I was a staff member at the boys group home in West Jordan and absolutely fell in love with all three boys. Andrew was by far a genius and had such a big heart. He truly changed my life, it was such a great experience to be able to work with him. He will be missed. I wish the best to Thomas, Julie and her family as well as to Taylor.

Sincerely,

Tiffany Privett
