

Anena Jorgensen Hession

April 3, 1953 - May 16, 2013

04/03/53 ~ 05/16/13

Anena Jorgensen Hession, our beloved mother, "Oma" and sister passed away peacefully Thursday, May 16, 2013 surrounded by her family. She was born on April 3, 1953 to Willard and Jeneal Jorgensen. Although she had many accomplishments throughout her life; it was when she became a mother that brought her the most joy. She always showed unconditional love and support to both of her children.

"Oma" had an amazing relationship with her granddaughters. Maren was the light of her life. They had such a unique love for one another, a bond that will never be forgotten. McKayla loved her "Oma" more than words can say, always finding a way to make each other laugh with every visit. She was an amazing "Oma" and will be greatly missed.

She touched many people throughout her life. Anyone who met Anena had the opportunity to share a laugh from her quick wit and sarcastic sense of humor almost always falling victim to it.

Although she went through many obstacles throughout her life, she always showed such amazing strength and a positive attitude. She was such an incredible inspiration not only to our entire family but too many others.

Anena is survived by her children, Brennan Hession Feller, and Dane

(Danielle) Hession; grandchildren; Maren Rose and McKayla Marie; sisters; Siri (Gary) Manwill and Stacie Wilden; brothers; Noel (Pam) Jorgensen, Kevin (Chris) Jorgensen, and Alan Jorgensen, and many nieces and nephews.

Proceeded in death by her parents, Willard and Jeneal Jorgensen, and her nephew Dax Manwill. The family would like to thank the staff and residents of Avalon Care Center for the kindness and care they always showed to Anena.

A celebration of Anena's life will be held on Wednesday May 22, 2013 at 6:00 p.m. at The Canterbury Place, 197 East 500 South Bountiful, Utah 84010.
