

Annie Lyla Fonua Moimoi

August 8, 1964 - January 17, 2020

A VOICE OF AN ANGEL

Annie Lyla Fonua Moimoi, 55, returned to her heavenly home in her sleep, early morning on Friday, January 17th, 2020. She was greeted by her parents Kaati Fonua To'a (Alipeti Tukuafu To'a) and Heamasi Mafileo Mataele (Sulianna Mataele) with grandparents and other loved ones that have passed.

Annie was born on August 8th, 1964 in Honolulu, Hawaii. Raised in Salt Lake City, Utah and graduated from West High School in 1982. She worked in fast food and fast casual restaurants during high school and before she went to serve her mission. She served a full-time mission in the Nuku'alofa Tongatapu Tonga Mission from 1982 - 1984.

She was married to George Tracy in 1995, they resided in Utah then divorced in 2003. She finally married the love of her life, Saiah Moimoi in 2006 and lived in Seattle, Wa where Saiah was laid to rest in 2011. Although Annie was full of life she did not have any children. She served willingly and faithfully in all her church callings.

Annie achieved her dreams as a singer and performer. She sang in family bands, church choirs and trio's. She sang professionally and in church. She loved Karaoke. When she had returned honorably from her church mission, she worked in the customer service and collections industry. She performed with excellence in her career because she was sympathetic, empathetic and compassionate towards the customer. She truly could relate to people. She had a voice which allowed her to calm an irate customer and she made sure that everyone she came in contact with felt valued and worth helping. For years she was awarded "Top Collector Employee" at Discover Card.

She will truly be missed by those she leaves behind.

Her surviving brothers: Stanley Mataele, George Tonga, Herbert Mataele, Albert To'a and surviving sisters: Vahamamao Lauhingo, Teisa Kava, Maile Finau, Ruby Salt.
