“ To the very loving family of such a loving young woman: Ya know, I have only had the extreme pleasure of knowing your cutie for just a few short years. I worked with Ash at Convergys/Chrysler. Ash made the day for me, just seeing her bright shining face, and her very vibrant personality. Ash has provided her family with the loving little antics that only a bubbly person can give. I love you Ruth and Ron!!

“ My heart and prayers go out in behalf of your family. Ashley was far too young. I'm sure that words will never explain or express the pain that you are suffering right now. May the God of comfort soothe your aching hearts with his promise at John 5:28. Please know that I will keep you in my prayers.

“ What a vibrant, strong and beautiful girl. Full of wild, fun and crazy ideas! Anything to make you laugh. She was so full of life, such a compassionate girl, she always kept you on your toes, the conversations so very deep to the absolute silliest. I am so sad she has left is so early...

Rest in peace Ashley, knowing I will do whatever I can to help with your little man, Matthew. You were the daughter I never had, and will always consider Matthew my first grandson. You were a friend and I love you very much. I will look for your smile everytime I look at Matthew. See you in my dreams....and I will hold you in my heart. Karen Newton
