Ashley Nicole Granger age 36, passed away peacefully, surrounded by family, on June 11, 2023 in Salt Lake City, Utah. She passed away unexpectedly due to complications from an autoimmune liver disease. Ashley was born on July 4, 1986 in Sandy, Utah to Eric and Angie Olsen. Ashley was married to DJ Bailey in May of 2007. They divorced and she later married Taylor Granger in 2012. They divorced and later became engaged to David Campbell at the time of her death.

Ashley graduated from Alta high school in 2004. Shortly after she began her career as a hairstylist, a passion she discovered while in high school. Over the years she worked at and managed multiple different salons, including her home salon; for a period of time she was a regional manager for Sport Clips. She flourished in her career for over 15 years.

Ashley was immensely dedicated to her career, a very talented hairdresser, and developed lifelong relationships and friendships with her clients. Everyone who knew her knows how helpful she was in her community, how big of a heart she had, and how she was always the life of the party. She didn't just light up the room, she turned the room upside down. Her sense of humor and vibrant energy was contagious to all around her. Ashley loved traveling, spending time with her family and animals, and doing yoga.

Ashley is survived by her two kids whom she absolutely adored, Kash Bailey (15) and Shai Granger (8). Her kids were her whole world. Her parents, Eric and Angie Olsen, her three brothers; Kalen (Alexandria), Braden (Teenie), and Mason (Kelsey). Her grandparents John and Cindy Cox. Her fiance David Campbell and his children Baylor and Braxton. Her entire family including many aunts, uncles, cousins, and countless friends.

Preceded in death by grandparents Gordon and Luan Olsen, grandma Barbara Olsen, and uncle Scott Olsen.

Service information: a viewing will be held Thursday June 15th at 6:00-8:00pm. The funeral will take place Friday June 16th with a viewing prior beginning at 10:30am. The service will begin at 12:00pm. Both the viewing and the funeral will take place at the LDS church located at 13085 S 300 E. Ashley will be laid to rest at Crescent Cemetery located at 11105 S State St, Sandy, UT.

Our family would like to extend a very special thank you to the many families, friends, and loved ones for all the love and support that has been provided. A very special thank you to the medical team at the University of Utah who provided exceptional care, love, and support to her and the family.

“ I met Ashley 3+ years ago at Sports Clips. And despite being 25 years older we had an instant connection. Neither of us had much of a filter and lived life to its fullest. We talked of previous marriages, new relationships, travels, and raising boys who were athletes. When she told me she was to start cutting independently, I said "Duh. What took you so long. You're to good for this place". After that I saw her every few weeks. An hour would pass like 5 minutes. We always had so much to talk about. She was my friend and I will miss her dearly. My thoughts are with Dave, Kash, and Shai during this difficult journey that has started far too soon.

“ I had only met Ashley recently on Facebook. I was struggling and she was so kind, understanding and positive. Her messages to me truly gave me hope.
I am so sorry for your loss of an incredibly beautiful person on the inside out outside.

“ Ashley absolutely did light up a room and then turn it upside down. What a perfect way to describe her energy and humor that made everyone smile and laugh. Sending love to all those that are heartbroken by the loss of such a wonderful person.
