“ I am never going to be able to forget Ben. He made me laugh, he made me cry, he made me think. He showed me what life is truly about. He had an aura that brought people together. He was my home. I've never met someone so real and loyal. We were together for a long time and there are so many memories I will cherish forever. This was our summer and I promise to still live it up for you and push life to the next level. I will always have your back. I love you, I miss you. Always&Forever -Special K

“ Ben was my penguin. The love of my life. He told me from day one that "she would be mine" and I was. He charmed his way into mine and so many others hearts. He always had big dreams and ambitions and was always thinking and planning 5 steps ahead. He was so outgoing and charismatic and could always make you laugh. I love you Ben I always will.

Oh Ben you are such a sweet soul! I can't tell you how much your friendship meant to my brother. He loved you so much! you were such a good friend to him through one of his hardest times. Then when he got hurt you were one of his only friends that were willing to come and just hang out with him since he wasn't able to leave. How lucky he was to have such a sweet, caring friend like you. I loved having you over and just getting to know you. You were truly one of a kind and I hope you know how much you were loved!
