“ Elder Spencer W. Kimball said: “We knew before we were born that we were coming to the earth for bodies and experience and that we would have joys and sorrows, pain and comforts, ease and hardships, health and sickness, successes and disappointments; and we knew also that we would die. We accepted all these eventualities with a glad heart eager to accept both the favorable and unfavorable. ... We were willing to come and take life as it came”

--Bonnie endured this life well. I will miss her, think of her daily but carry her in my heart. Kids know for a fact her love reaches to you beyond this earthly existence.
