“ Brad was my first love. I laughed so much with him. The whole family welcomed me and treated me as their own daughter. I have so many wonderful memories of Sam, Doris ,Brad and the family earing dinners, playing cards/fice, puzzles,walks,movies, trips, fires, bbqs, visiting others. Jims place, scones. Brad always took care of his family and mine. I loved Brad and his family that will always be family to me. Until we meet again, you're still the one! Love, Punk

“ It seems like just yesterday that Brad was just a small neighbor boy next door. The 45+ years brought his comings and goings in and out of the Harger home. He became such a great caregiver to both his Dad and Mother. Brad may not like the term but the service he gave his parents was Christ like. He will be missed by many and may God bless.

“ Brad my was very first boyfriend and I was so head over heels! My very first diamond, and only promise ring was from him. His entire family accepted me and welcomed me to their home at such an early age. But their warmth, fun loving character will forever be etched in my heart!
I love you all and can not even express the depth of heartfelt ache I feel knowing that words are not enough to express to you all for my deepest sympathy.
RIP my dear friend. We will meet again one day!

I'm so sorry for your loss. There is nothing that can prepare a person for the feelings of losing a family member.

The Bible describes Jehovah as a God of all comfort, at 2 Corinthians chapter 1 and verses 3-4. One scripture that has brought so many people comfort is Revelation chapter 21 and verses 3-5 because that describes a promise from God that is specifically touching to anyone who has experienced the pain of losing someone. Again, my deepest sympathies for your loss.

For several years, I went to see Brad's mother every week on Wed. to visit with her after Sam died. I usually took my 2 young grandchildren Casey and Lily with me and we played 5 Crowns, Go Fish, puzzles and colored with her. Brad often came home and talked with my grandchildren and teased them. They really liked him. We planted flowers for Doris and he always appreciated that. He kept the yard looking great, because Doris loved flowers so much. We will miss his smile. We are so sorry for your loss.
