“ Brandon, you were the loudest in the room, there was never a filter between your heart & your head and although it drove all of us crazy I think we all loved that in you. To know you was to love you, to love your loud deep belly laugh and your passion for family, you will be missed deeply. We will remember you in our home with chicken wings, taco dinners, the biggest 4th of July fire work shows and pure ridiculous jokes. We love you and will miss you so much.
