

Brenda Joy Jensen Edvalson

May 12, 1941 - February 5, 2023

Brenda Joy Jensen Edvalson

May 12, 1941-February 5, 2023

With broken hearts we say goodbye, for now, to our sweet angel mother, grandmother, sister, and friend. Brenda Edvalson passed away early Sunday morning, surrounded by her family. She will be greatly missed by family and friends. She was born May 12, 1941 to Elmo Ernest Jensen and Betty Marcene Arrowsmith in Salina, Utah. She was a proud 1959 graduate of Ben Lomond High School and attended Weber State College on a music scholarship for her talent with the clarinet.

At a Weber College Institute dance, she was swept off her feet by a charming gentleman who would become her eternal companion. In July of 1960, she married Ronald Edvalson in the Salt Lake LDS Temple. After spending time in the Los Angeles area, they moved to Kaysville in 1969 and made their home there. The Kaysville LDS 10th Ward was dear to her heart for 54 years. Once her children were all in school, she began a career in food service with the Davis County School District until she retired in 1993.

Brenda always joked she was a 'Jack of all trades but master of none'. Those who knew her reject that notion because her creativity and mastered talents were abundant. She learned to play the piano from her grandmother and enjoyed filling her home with beautiful music. She was the doctor of beloved dolls, restoring them to their original beauty. She was the creator of beautiful wedding cakes for many in the neighborhood. She taught many young people to crochet and sew. She created a Victorian dollhouse with beautiful miniatures that won Best in Show at the Utah State Fair. But there was more. She saved birds that crashed into the sliding glass door, over and over again. She saved chipmunks from fallen nests and kept them as pets. She even raised an orphaned baby hummingbird that loved to perch on her finger. She loved so much, and received much love in return.

She found joy working in her yard and making it into a magical retreat - complete with ponds, fountains, and tame fish. Summers were spent in her beautiful yard, or camping at their mountain property in Evergreen Park. Wherever she was, it was all about family. She loved to be surrounded by everyone and everything she loved. She collected trinkets and made lasting friendships everywhere she went.

She began working with the Bountiful LDS Temple to repair altar cloths. Word of her work spread and it became a calling, then an official mission. She was proud of her missionary name tag as she worked closely with the temple department and managed the many volunteers around the world as they crocheted altar cloths for nearly a decade. She loved the temple, and being involved with them in this way, to make them even more beautiful, brought her great joy. Brenda believed it was best to work for the Lord because He had the best retirement benefits.

We will miss her smile, her laugh, and her love. From her we learned we could do anything we put our minds to, and that actions speak louder than words. Her faith in her Savior never wavered and she taught us to recognize His presence in our daily lives. She has left her legacy through her children, grandchildren, and all who were blessed to know her.

Brenda is survived by her five children, Cindy (Jim) Singleton, Dan (Janet) Edvalson, Sheri (Dave) Allred, Kristin (Geoff) Wardle, Monica (Mark) Zesiger; brother, Tom (Joyce) Jensen, two sisters, Ann (Paul) Davis, and Pam (Kevin) Fielding, brother-in-law Blaine Rhodes, and a sister-in-law Diana Edvalson. Other survivors include thirteen grandchildren and fourteen great-grandchildren.

A visitation will be held on Saturday, February 11, 2023 from 12:30-2:30 p.m. at the LDS Church at 1039 Crestwood Road in Kaysville. Interment will follow at the Kaysville City Cemetery.

Special thanks to Debbie Thaxton and her crew from Applegate Hospice, the staff at Rocky Mountain Care, the staff at the University of Utah Medical Center, and friends from the Kaysville 10th Ward. Services are being provided by Serenity Funeral Home.

Previous Events

Viewing

FEB 11. 12:30 PM - 2:30 PM (MT)

Kaysville Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints 10th Ward
1039 Crestwood Rd
Kaysville, UT

Burial

FEB 11. 3:00 PM - 3:30 PM (MT)

Kaysville City Cemetery
500 E. Crestwood Road
Kaysville, UT

Tribute Wall

“ Brenda Joy Jensen Edvalson

October 05, 2023 at 07:49 PM

“ A sympathy card was purchased for the family of Brenda Joy Jensen Edvalson.

February 11, 2023 at 03:55 PM

“ Brenda and Ron have been our close friends for many years. Ron was the best man at our wedding reception after we were married in the Logan Temple. Brenda's obituary was impressive and showed that she was always willing to help others. We know that temple service was always a great love of hers. We treasure the doily that Brenda made for us for our fiftieth wedding anniversary. We send our love and best regards to her family.

Lawrence and Noma Bowman - February 10, 2023 at 04:00 PM

“ I met sweet Brenda and her friend Joe at Chuck a Rama, I wait tables there. And I looked forward to every Monday seeing her smiling face. She would tell me stories about her family her life growing up. She always had a smile and lighted my day up. I had to get her number because a couple of times it would worry me if they weren't there. Sometimes people only come into your life for a brief moment. But I am so glad she walked into mine and touched me for good.

---

Naomi Bjorn - February 09, 2023 at 08:32 PM

MA

I have so many fond memories of being with Brenda, I don't know where to begin. I loved sitting in her living room and looking at her amazing projects of making dolls, crocheting temple cloths or looking at her wonderful journals. I loved her back yard including having lunch there or looking at the miniature fairy scene. I enjoyed going to dinner with her and her long-time friend, Joe Wise, who was a good friend of Stan's. To say she will be missed is an understatement. Love and peace in Christ to the family.

---

Marilyn Albiston - February 13, 2023 at 12:01 PM