“ My wife and I have known Brent for many years, He was a good kind man. Brent was known to us and his many friends for his cheerful outgoing personality. He loved children and always was friendly and kind to them. Bren would stop and visit families of the area and was welcome in our homes.

Brent exemplified the ideals of Scouting living up to the Eagle rank he achieved. He consistently tried to do good each day.

We feel blessed for having known Brent; our lives are better because of him. We are glad to know the family he came from by the example he set; showing the good home he was raised in. He is a true Christian.

Our hearts go out to Brent's family who we are sure are missing him.
